

NEW TROOPS DISPATCHED INTO MEXICO

GENERAL FUNSTON SENDS DETACHMENT FROM COLUMBUS TO GUARD LENGTH-ENING LINE.

REYES MAY SURRENDER

Commander of Villa Forces Near Torreon Said to Have Offered to Give Up to Carranza if Given Amnesty.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

El Paso, April 4.—With Francisco Villa still in flight and his whereabouts apparently unknown to his pursuers, the campaign of the United States army now scouring northern Chihuahua for the bandit and his followers, entered today upon what may be considered as a second and broader phase, New troops have been ordered to depart from the military base at Columbus, New Mexico, into Mexico to protect the lengthening line of communication, which is rapidly becoming attenuated as the flying columns of American cavalry advance southward.

Villa has been reported at many points within the broad zone that reaches from the Mexican border to the Benito Juarez district.

Must Guard Line.

San Antonio, April 4.—Convinced that Villa is south of Chihuahua and is continuing his flight, General Funston has a difficult problem to solve, in arranging to carry the campaign still further into the interior of Mexico.

The line already extends 300 miles and must be guarded against attacks the entire length.

Offers to Surrender.

Torreon, Mexico, April 4.—General Carrillo Revives, commanding the Villa forces in this locality, has sent a letter to General Trevino, Carranza commander, offering to surrender with all his forces if given amnesty. This information was given out today by General Trevino.

More Troops Into Mexico.

Washington, April 4.—General Funston, the war department, to the effect that small forces from Mexico from Columbus to protect the line of communication with General Pershing. He did not state whether any additional troops had been sent to the military base.

Report of Villa's Whereabouts.

El Paso, April 4.—Reports received here today from Mexican sources, reported the story brought from the interior yesterday by a Mexican to the effect that Villa with a few of his most trusted followers, was far to the south of San Antonio, Texas. One report said that the bandit had already reached that town, but it was generally believed that this was at least premature.

Pershing's Location Unknown.

Columbus, April 4.—General Pershing has established his camp so far into the wilderness of Guerrero mountains and so far beyond the range of communication that his staff officers were obliged to report again today and had no knowledge of his whereabouts.

This information came to the department for list of war department for list of American casualties in the San Geronimo engagement.

Scouts Sent to Front.

Washington, April 4.—Nineteen Apache scouts and trailers have been ordered from Fort Apache, Arizona, to General Pershing's columns. Captain Hazard of the 10th cavalry, who was with General Funston when he captured Aguinaldo, is one of the scouts for the border today, but he will not accompany them into Mexico.

REFUSE TO RELEASE MEN TAKEN OFF SHIP

Great Britain Maintains Right to Take Central Powers' Men From Ships.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Washington, April 4.—Great Britain's refusal to release the thirty-eight Germans, Austrians and Turks taken from the American steamer China near Shanghai was received today at the state department and will be given official notice later.

The British note is understood to insist on the right of the government to seize enemy subjects returning to take part in the war. This is understood, the United States is prepared vigorously to dispute. The intention of the state department is to demand the unconditional release of the prisoners, according to many precedents.

ANOTHER ZEPPELIN RAID ON ENGLAND

Fortifications Near Yarmouth Are Attacked by Dirigible Last Night.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

London, April 4.—Another Zeppelin raid on the British coast was made on Friday night, the admiral temporally informed today. The fortifications near Yarmouth were attacked and the airship returned safely.

DUTCH TROOPS MASS ON GERMAN FRONTIER

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

London, April 4.—Wireless reports from Zurich state Holland has closed its German frontier and massed all her available forces there.

MARRIED MEN OF ENGLAND TO AID IN RECRUITING

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

London, April 4.—The Earl of Derby has approved a suggestion placed before him by a delegation from the National Union of Attested Married Men that the members of the union organize themselves in the country in committees to assist local recruiting officers in raising single men and helping to secure the services of such men for the army.

How Col. Dodd's Cavalry Caught Up And Gave Fight to Villa's Forces

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

At the Front, March 31, via Aeroplane and Motor Courier to American Boer at Columbus, N. W., April 4. The strategy of the enemy after two weeks of pursuit of Villa had under General Diaz Hernandez was taken by American troops and dispersed was revealed here today. The plan was to send the American column in a straight line along the "string of the bow" while Villa was taking a longer route along the "arch of the bow." Coupled with this maneuver was a general order:

"spare nothing except horse-flesh."

Under these instructions the cavalry, with Colonel George Dodd's brigade always in the van, pushed straight southward from the border of the Santa Cruz river valley. Villa, meanwhile, after passing Casas Grandes, and points south of there, had swung eastward, behind a ridge of mountains close to 500 feet high and topped with huge copper green cliffs.

In this swing to the east, Villa's positions were difficult to locate. Sometimes it seemed sheer guess-work. Nevertheless, the cavalry steadily hurried southward along a shorter line, trusting Villa finally would try to turn ahead of them to his old haunts. Literally nothing except horse flesh was spared by the Americans.

On Marches, Colonel Dodd's men were reduced by the necessity of leaving patrols and by the illness of about forty men, to a total advance of New troops have been ordered to depart from the military base at Columbus, New Mexico, into Mexico to protect the lengthening line of communication, which is rapidly becoming attenuated as the flying columns of American cavalry advance southward.

Villa has been reported at many points within the broad zone that reaches from the Mexican border to the Benito Juarez district.

Must Guard Line.

San Antonio, April 4.—Convinced that Villa is south of Chihuahua and is continuing his flight, General Funston has a difficult problem to solve, in arranging to carry the campaign still further into the interior of Mexico.

The line already extends 300 miles and must be guarded against attacks the entire length.

Offers to Surrender.

Torreon, Mexico, April 4.—General Carrillo Revives, commanding the Villa forces in this locality, has sent a letter to General Trevino, Carranza commander, offering to surrender with all his forces if given amnesty. This information was given out today by General Trevino.

More Troops Into Mexico.

Washington, April 4.—General Funston, the war department, to the effect that small forces from Mexico from Columbus to protect the line of communication with General Pershing. He did not state whether any additional troops had been sent to the military base.

Report of Villa's Whereabouts.

El Paso, April 4.—Reports received here today from Mexican sources, reported the story brought from the interior yesterday by a Mexican to the effect that Villa with a few of his most trusted followers, was far to the south of San Antonio, Texas. One report said that the bandit had already reached that town, but it was generally believed that this was at least premature.

Pershing's Location Unknown.

Columbus, April 4.—General Pershing has established his camp so far into the wilderness of Guerrero mountains and so far beyond the range of communication that his staff officers were obliged to report again today and had no knowledge of his whereabouts.

This information came to the department for list of war department for list of American casualties in the San Geronimo engagement.

Scouts Sent to Front.

Washington, April 4.—Nineteen Apache scouts and trailers have been ordered from Fort Apache, Arizona, to General Pershing's columns. Captain Hazard of the 10th cavalry, who was with General Funston when he captured Aguinaldo, is one of the scouts for the border today, but he will not accompany them into Mexico.

REFUSE TO RELEASE MEN TAKEN OFF SHIP

Tennessee Man Testified in Patten Life Suit How His Wife Acquired Habit.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Chicago, April 4.—As soon as the wife of Dr. Sternill, a storekeeper at Ragin, Tenn., gets out of bed in the morning, she reaches in the clothes closet and gets her drink of wine of cardui, her husband told the jury in a libel case of John Z. Patten against the American Medical Association yesterday. He said he had been selling medicines for fifteen years and his wife had been using it during that time.

"At first," he said, "she took a teaspoonful. Now she takes as much as an ounce and a half."

A neighbor, Sternill testified, takes wine of cardui according to directions. "I'd call the spoon she uses a soup ladle," he said.

BODY OF MAN FOUND AT FOX RIVER BRIDGE

Green Bay Mystery Is Cleared Up When Corpse of Man Missing Since November Is Found.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Green Bay, April 4.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Welsh, who had been missing since a taxicab he was thought to have occupied went into the Fox River last November, was cleared up today by finding of his body near Long Tail Point in Green Bay. It was never proven whether Welsh went down with the car, or jumped to safety and left the city. He was thirty-five years of age.

CONSIDER ALLIES' REPLY REGARDING MAIL SEIZURES

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Washington, April 4.—With the reply of the entente allies to the protest of the United States against mail seizures before them, officials today were considering what, if any, further steps shall be taken in the controversy.

BILLY SUNDAY RECEIVED BY PRESIDENT WILSON MONDAY

Washington, April 4.—Billy Sunday, the evangelist, was received Monday by President Wilson at the White House.

CONSIDER ALLIES' REPLY REGARDING MAIL SEIZURES

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

London, April 4.—The Earl of Derby has approved a suggestion placed before him by a delegation from the National Union of Attested Married Men that the members of the union organize themselves in the country in committees to assist local recruiting officers in raising single men and helping to secure the services of such men for the army.

MARRIED MEN OF ENGLAND TO AID IN RECRUITING

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

London, April 4.—The Earl of Derby has approved a suggestion placed before him by a delegation from the National Union of Attested Married Men that the members of the union organize themselves in the country in committees to assist local recruiting officers in raising single men and helping to secure the services of such men for the army.

REPUBLICAN VOTERS WILL SETTLE ISSUE

WISCONSIN TO FIND OUT WHICH WAY WIND BLOWS IN ELECTION OF DELEGATES.

TO BEAT LA FOLLETTE?

Philip Branch Against Progressives Lined-up for Fight at the Polls Today—New York Election.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

London, April 4.—Cardinal Mercier's pastoral letter, which evoked a remonstrance from Governor General Von Bissing last month, has just been received here. After expressing joy at being back among his fellow countrymen and saying his journey to Rome had been blessed beyond what he had dared to hope, the Belgian cardinal turned to the position of Belgium.

Philip's Moral Triumph.

"Let us never suppose that the finish or the issue of the gigantic duel now being fought in Europe and Asia Minor, should be uncertain. One fact is already established in history—the moral triumph of Belgium."

"We shall win, but we are not yet at the end of our suffering. France, Great Britain and Russia have pledged themselves to make no peace until Belgium has recovered her entire independence and been largely indemnified. Italy in turn has adhered to this pledge. Our future is not in doubt, but we must be prepared for it."

Expect Letter from Rome.

Rome, April 3, via Paris, April 4.—The text of Cardinal Mercier's pastoral letter is awaited with keen interest by the political world, and the question is, will the Pope's pronouncements be chosen?

The fight is again between the socialists and the conservative Republicans—the progressive, led by Senator Robert La Follette, and the conservative by Gov. E. L. Phillips.

Both factions have complete tickets for delegates in the field. If the progressives win, they will go to the polls to vote for La Follette for president.

The conservative delegates are chosen, the text of the document was not made public.

Both factions have complete tickets for delegates in the field. If the progressives win, they will go to the polls to vote for La Follette for president.

The next day he was back among his fellow countrymen and saying his journey to Rome had been blessed beyond what he had dared to hope, the Belgian cardinal turned to the position of Belgium.

Philip's Moral Triumph.

"Let us never suppose that the finish or the issue of the gigantic duel now being fought in Europe and Asia Minor, should be uncertain. One fact is already established in history—the moral triumph of Belgium."

"We shall win, but we are not yet at the end of our suffering. France, Great Britain and Russia have pledged themselves to make no peace until Belgium has recovered her entire independence and been largely indemnified. Italy in turn has adhered to this pledge. Our future is not in doubt, but we must be prepared for it."

Expect Letter from Rome.

Rome, April 3, via Paris, April 4.—The text of Cardinal Mercier's pastoral letter is awaited with keen interest by the political world, and the question is, will the Pope's pronouncements be chosen?

The fight is again between the socialists and the conservative Republicans—the progressive, led by Senator Robert La Follette, and the conservative by Gov. E. L. Phillips.

Both factions have complete tickets for delegates in the field. If the progressives win, they will go to the polls to vote for La Follette for president.

The conservative delegates are chosen, the text of the document was not made public.

Both factions have complete tickets for delegates in the field. If the progressives win, they will go to the polls to vote for La Follette for president.

The next day he was back among his fellow countrymen and saying his journey to Rome had been blessed beyond what he had dared to hope, the Belgian cardinal turned to the position of Belgium.

Philip's Moral Triumph.

"Let us never suppose that the finish or the issue of the gigantic duel now being fought in Europe and Asia Minor, should be uncertain. One fact is already established in history—the moral triumph of Belgium."

"We shall win, but we are not yet at the end of our suffering. France, Great Britain and Russia have pledged themselves to make no peace until Belgium has recovered her entire independence and been largely indemnified. Italy in turn has adhered to this pledge. Our future is not in doubt, but we must be prepared for it."

Expect Letter from Rome.

Rome, April 3, via Paris, April 4.—The text of Cardinal Mercier's pastoral letter is awaited with keen interest by the political world, and the question is, will the Pope's pronouncements be chosen?

The fight is again between the socialists and the conservative Republicans—the progressive, led by Senator Robert La Follette, and the conservative by Gov. E. L. Phillips.

Both factions have complete tickets for delegates in the field. If the progressives win, they will go to the polls to vote for La Follette for president.

The conservative delegates are chosen, the text of the document was not made public.

Both factions have complete tickets for delegates in the field. If the progressives win, they will go to the polls to vote for La Follette for president.

The next day he was back among his fellow countrymen and saying his journey to Rome had been blessed beyond what he had dared to hope, the Belgian cardinal turned to the position of Belgium.

Philip's Moral Triumph.

"Let us never suppose that the finish or the issue of the gigantic duel now being fought in Europe and Asia Minor, should be uncertain. One fact is already established in history—the moral triumph of Belgium."

"We shall win, but we are not yet at the end of our suffering. France, Great Britain and Russia have pledged themselves to make no peace until Belgium has recovered her entire independence and been largely indemnified. Italy in turn has adhered to this pledge. Our future is not in doubt, but we must be prepared for it."

Expect Letter from Rome.

JANESEVILLE BOY WITH COL. DODD PURSUING VILLA

Elmer Riley, Member of Famous Seventh Cavalry, Detachment of Which Routed Outlaw's Band.

Elmer Riley, the son of Michael J. Riley, of 302 North Pearl street, is in Mexico pursuing Villa. He is with Colonel Dodd and the famous Seventh Cavalry, a detachment of which, two hundred and fifty strong, routed twice their number of Villistas in a pitched battle and scattered the Mexican out-law's forces to the four winds. Just whether young Riley is with the detachment which defeated the brigands is not known by his parents. Their last correspondence with him was sent from Douglas, previous to the dash south of the punitive expedition on President Wilson's order, "Go get Villa." At that time he had written that conditions were assuming a serious aspect and possible war, and were believed by the soldiers on the border that they would eventually lead to the pursuit of the greaser rebel chieftain.

ELMER RILEY.

The Columbus massacre and the heading of the outlaws towards the Mormon settlement where a colony of five hundred Americans lived, sent Dodd to their rescue with his Seventh Cavalry after the state department had demanded intervention from Carranza, first chief of the Mexicans, and permission to cross into Mexico to run to earth the butchering Villa.

Dodd's dash on the Mormon settlement proved a strategical move and headed off the Villa band and turned them southward. His rapid pursuit of the outlaw with detachment of two hundred and fifty men started the United States, while even more amazingly he pushed his troopers fifty-five miles in seventeen hours of constant riding, his attack and rout of the unsuspecting outlaws, which no doubt is the climax which foretells the closing of the career of this Mexican guerilla, now almost as famous in history as Morgan and his fording the Ohio and invasion of the north during the closing stormy days of the Civil War.

Janesville friends and relatives are anxiously awaiting word from the young trooper and have hopes for his safety at all times.

REGULAR MEETING OF SCHOOL BOARD

Board of Education Meet Last Night.—Will Hold Special Meeting in Two Weeks With City Council.

Members of the board of education of the Janesville public schools held their regular monthly meeting last night at the high school. The routine business of the month came up and was passed upon but no new matters were taken up. It was voted to hold a special meeting two weeks from last night on April seventeenth, when they will meet with the city council.

The question of making new additions to the high school will be discussed at this meeting. This issue is very important at the present time as the school is much in need of room and requires immediate attention. Though no steps have been taken the board have had a few plans before them of building which would supply the needs of the school.

TRACTOR PLANT BUILDING IS RUSHED; DEMONSTRATE POSSIBILITIES OF ENGINE

The brick work on the factory building of the Janesville Farm Tractor & Gas Engine company was completed yesterday. Today work on the upper framework commenced and will be pushed along as rapidly as possible until completed. Five of the Townsend or Janesville tractors have been set up and it is proposed to demonstrate with one of these on a farm south of Janesville some time in the near future.

Bulk oysters 25¢ pint.

Feed (Retail): Oil meal, $2.00 per 100 lbs.; bran, $1.20; standard middlings, $1.25; flour middlings, $1.50; Red Dog, $1.60; ground barley, $1.00 per 100 lbs.; corn feed, $1.60 per 100 lbs.; oats, $1.50 per 100 lbs.; scratchings, $1.75 per 100 lbs.

Pure lard, 16¢ lb.; lard compound, 12½¢ lb.; oleomargarine, 20¢ lb.; Butter, 34¢; creamery, 40¢. Eggs—Fresh, 20¢.

Local Livestock Market.

Hogs—Heavy, $5.50@$5.25; butchers, $7.50@$8.00; rough, 5.00@5.25; pigs, $5.00@5.75.

Sheep—Ewes, $3@3½¢; lambs, 66¢. Grain—Baled hay, 80¢@85¢; loose hay, small demand; corn, 90¢ bushel; shavings, 35¢ bushel; barley, 70¢ bushel; oats, $1.20 bushel; mixed grain, 65¢@70¢ bushel; hay, new oats, 55¢; barley, $1.50 hundred; new rye, 90¢@$1.00 bushel.

Cows—Canners, 2@3¢; fat, 4@5¢; cutters, 3@3½¢; steers, fat, 4@5¢; thin heifers, 5@6½¢; thin helpers, 3@4¢.

MADISON COMMERCE BOARD AGAIN WITHOUT A SECRETARY

INSPICUAL TO THE GAZETTE] Madison, Wis., April 4.—The resignation of A. H. Melville, who was elected secretary of the Madison board of commerce last month, has been presented. He will resume his work at the university. Upon returning from his home in Oshkosh last night Melville confirmed the report that he had resigned. The local board is now looking for a new secretary.

REPORTS SHOW RAILROADS PROSPERING MORE DAILY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS] Washington, April 4.—Prosperity of railroads throughout the country continues without abatement, according to preliminary reports for February made public today by the interstate commerce commission. Returns from ninety-six large roads show the net revenue increased from $25,000,000 in February, 1915, to $33,000,000 in February, 1916, more than 50 per cent.

Whitewater News

Whitewater, April 4.—Rev. J. A. O. Sub of the Norwegian church at Stoughton, gave an address here last evening in the interest of the no-license campaign. He is an excellent speaker and told of the many benefits that no-license has done for Stoughton.

Harry Dutcher of Janesville is spending the week's vacation at home. Miss Mable Higgins was a Janesville visitor Saturday.

Miss Etta Whiteman visited the past week with relatives in Janesville.

Russell Conn of Edgerton spent Sunday with friends here.

Mrs. J. L. Fulton and Mrs. Louis Leiberman came Saturday from Burlington, after a few days' visit with relatives here. Mr. Leiberman will remain here a few days before going to her home in Shabogian.

Miss Mary Clyne goes today to Milton Junction to spend a few days at Dr. E. S. Hull's.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Niquet entertained company of friends at 500 Saturday evening.

Mrs. Lillie Petty was down from Port Atkinson yesterday Sunday at the home of her father, S. L. Tait. Her sister, Winifred Tait, went back with her for a few days.

Miss Margaret Winch is spending the week at the Henry Calkins home, in Richmond.

Miss Gertrude Vorlander, a returned missionary from India, spoke to a fair-sized audience Sunday evening on her work in foreign lands. Mrs. W. S. Vining entertained a few friends Monday evening at her home in honor of Miss Vorlander.

The Congregational and Methodist Sunday schools held their first sessions before the preaching services Sunday. It looks as if the change would be very successful.

Miss Leona Brown is visiting friends in Madison.

Dorothy and Florence Hull spent Saturday in Janesville.

Sarah Jones of Beloit has been here visiting at the home of her brother, A. E. Scholl.

Rev. LL N. Stewart was a visitor in Elkhorn yesterday.

Dr. A. C. Rice and John Brewin returned home Sunday, after a ten days' visit at the former's farm in Alabama. Miss Mabel Cadman of Janesville is visiting relatives here today.

Roof Fire: Sparks coming out of a chimney set fire to the roof of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Benge, 507 South Third street, last evening, doing minor damage. Hand pumps were used by the firemen to put out the blaze.

BENEFIT AT APOLLO FOR FACTORY FUND

Proprietor Sherer and Manager Zanias Donate Use of Theatre for Thursday Evening, April 6th.

Proprietor W. T. Sherer and Manager James Zanias of the Apollo theatre, have donated the use of the theatre on Thursday evening, April 6th, for the performance, the proceeds of which will go to swell the fund being raised by the Janesville Commercial Club to secure the Gossard factory's location in this city.

The film, "Are You a Mason," of the famous "Players" company, presented by Charles Frohman and company with the celebrated comedian, John Barrymore, in the principal role, has been engaged for the opening night for the performance, the proceeds of which will go to swell the fund being raised by the Janesville Commercial Club to secure the Gossard factory's location in this city.

The film, "Are You a Mason," of the famous "Players" company, presented by Charles Frohman and company with the celebrated comedian, John Barrymore, in the principal role, has been engaged for the opening night for the performance, the proceeds of which will go to swell the fund being raised by the Janesville Commercial Club to secure the Gossard factory's location in this city.

In addition to the picture there will be several vaudeville acts contributed by local talent. Bob Dailey will appear in a song act. Frank Cushing will sing several songs. John numbers, and Miss Lucille Craft will dance the Highland lilt and the Irish step, promises to be a great entertainment which will be received by capacity audiences.

THREE UP THIS MORNING ON DRUNKENNESS CHARGE

There were three before the municipal court this morning on the charge of drunkenness, two men and one woman, who were arrested last evening. Mrs. Liza Hefty and Robert Courtney were taken in custody at the Courtney home on South Pearl street for being drunk and disorderly. Courtney pleaded not guilty to the complaint this morning, declaring that he was "asleep" when the officers made the arrest.

The court magistrate looked at the defendant and ventured to remark, "You are not sober yet." However, Courtney stuck to the plea and his case was set for April eleventh at four o'clock. In default of $150 bail he was committed to the county jail.

Mrs. Hefty admitted being drunk and was fined five dollars or seven days. She went to jail.

William Lennon of Rockford, was fined fifteen dollars or twenty days, and not having the finances handy, Lennon took the twenty days.

THIRTY-SIX CENTS PRICE PAID FOR ELGIN BUTTER

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Elgin, Ill., April 1.—Butter, forty tubs, sold at 36 cents.

RECORDS SHOW TAXES HAVE BEEN REDUCED

Books of City Give Figures on Tax Rates During the Last Eight Years.

An investigation was made among the record books of the city this morning to determine the rates of taxes during the period when the city was governed by the council form and under the commission administration. In the last four years in which Candidate John J. Sheridan was a member of the council as an alderman, the tax rates were as follows: 1911—$18.93; 1910—$17.56; 1909—$18.01; 1908—$19.60. These amounts were for a thousand dollars' worth of taxable property. This amount includes the state, county and city rates.

Under the commission form of government, the taxes were as follows: 1915—$13.77; 1914—$14.94; 1913—$15.44 and 1912—$13.83. These figures are open to the public and can be seen at the office of the city clerk. The average taxes for the four years in which Mr. Sheridan was a member of the council were $18.37 and under the commission $14.22, a difference of $4.17. The records also show that taking the city, state and county tax, the average has been much lower in the last four years.

YOUNG LADIES ON HIKE UP THE RIVER TODAY

Spring is surely here as the young people are already planning picnics and outings. Today a number of high school girls enjoyed a hike up the river carrying with them their eats and all necessary equipment to make the day one filled with joy. They first obtained a couple of little boys with bikes and carriers so that the task of lugging the foodstuffs would be taken off their hands.

The day was spent up the river about three miles and all sure did enjoy themselves. The following young ladies took the hike: Carroll Richardson, Mrs. Bliss, Sybil Richardson, Mrs. Campbell, Ruth Granger, Dorothy Korst, Margaret Birmingham, Gladys Andrews, Francis Graner, Manilla Powers, and the Messrs. Bliss and Sprackling.

"Y" KIDS TAKE UP-RIVER HIKE FOR FIRST TIME

Twelve members of the boys' department at the Young Men's Christian association enjoyed an up-the-river hike this morning, taking with them beer steaks and other eatables. Physical Director C. L. Lewis accompanied them. The rain this afternoon hindered their sport for the rest of the day but the morning amusements were thoroughly enjoyed.

HOG TRADE IS SLOW AT SLIGHT DECLINE

Demand Falls Off This Morning With Quotations Showing Tendency to Break—Sheep Lower.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS] Chicago, April 4.—There was slow market for hogs this morning with prices slightly lower than usual, indicating a further slump. At the early trading bulk of sales were from $9.55 to $9.70. Receipts were 11,000 head. Cattle receipts were light again, at 2,000 head and market was steady to active. Sheep had a slump, due to a run of 15,000. The price list follows:

Cattle—Receipts 2,000; market steers, native, bushers, 7.80@8.40; western steers, 7.60@8.50; stockers and feeders, 5.90@6.40; cows and heifers, 4.00@4.85; calves, 2.75@3.25.

Hogs—Receipts 11,000; market, average at yesterday's average; light 9.25@9.80; mixed 9.35@9.80; heavy 9.20@9.80; rough 9.20@9.40; pigs 7.00@8.50; bulk of sales 9.55@9.75.

Sheep—Receipts 15,000; market, average at yesterday's average; light 8.25@9.00; lambs, 7.00@7.50.

Potatoes—Unchanged.

Poultry—Alive: Higher; fowls 18; springs 18.

Monday's Market.

Chicago, April 4.—Yesterday's hog market, most 25¢ higher. In the top, however, at $10.55, was 30¢ above yesterday and within 25¢ of year's top.

Day's receipts of swine totaled only 19,000, the smallest Monday run in six months. Shippers and speculators boomed the market, while Arnow stayed out of the trade.

Receipts of cattle yesterday at 9,500 were a third below expectations. Prices ruled steady to 10¢ higher, being a great disappointment to sales, which generally counted on at least 25¢ advance.

Fifty-seven spring lambs sold yesterday at $17 per 100 lbs., being first of the season and a record price. In 1915 the first consignment arrived two weeks earlier and sold at $15.

Average price of hogs at Chicago was $9.68, against $9.42 Saturday, $9.27 Friday, $9.38 a week ago, $8.85 a year ago and $8.79 two years ago.

Buyers Fight Cattle Gain.

Buyers were persistent in their efforts to keep cattle prices down, resulting in a slow and unsatisfactory trade at slightly advanced prices. Best offered sold at $9.85. Quality poorer than usual. Quotations:

Choice to fancy steers, 9.25@9.85

Poor to good steers, 7.75@9.25

Yearlings, 8.20@9.40

Fat cows and heifers, 6.65@8.55

Native bulls and stags, 5.75@8.50

Feeding cattle, 6.00@1,100 lbs.

Poor to fancy veal calves, 6.50@9.25

Hog Prices Sharply Higher.

Everything tended to make the hog market a runaway affair yesterday. Small receipts, increased shipping orders, higher provision prices on change and a decrease of over 60,000 lbs. in stocks of meats (hog products), compared with a year ago, forced an advance of 20@30¢ in values. Quotations:

Bulk of sales, $0.65@9.75

Heavy butchers and ship- ping, 8.70@9.85

Light butchers, 190@230 lbs. 9.65@9.80

Light bacon, 140@180 lbs. 9.45@9.80

Heavy packing, 260@400 lbs. 9.50@9.70

Mixed packing, 200@230 lbs. 9.45@9.70

Rough, heavy packing, 9.25@9.45

Poor to best pigs, 60@135 lbs.

Heavy, 200@230 lbs. 7.25@8.85

Stags, 30 lbs. dockage per head, 9.90@9.60

Colorado Lambs $11.25

The Janesville Gazette

New Bldg. 200-201 E. Milwaukee St.

ENTERED AT THE POST OFFICE AT JANESEVILLE

WIS., AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATUR-

DAY EVENING.

Members of Associated Press.

Member of Audit Bureau of Circulations.

Member of Wisconsin Daily League.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Fair tonight and
Wednesday except unsettled in north portion tonight. Colder tonight.

EVERYONE SHOULD VOTE.

Today is election day. The polls do not close until eight this evening and if you have not yet exercised your right of franchise by voting you should do so before it is too late. Not only is the question of the election of a city councilman at stake, but also the selection of a justice of the supreme court and delegates at large and district delegates to the national political conventions.

Do not be a slacker. Vote and exercise your right as a citizen. It is your duty to yourself and to your family that you take an active part in the matters political of your city, your state and indirectly of the nation as a whole. Your interests are of as much importance as any other individual and you should have a voice in the government.

THE REST ROOM.

The members of the various women's clubs of the city have decided to organize into a city federation. One of the results to be obtained by such a movement is the establishment of a rest room in some central location. Prominent business men would be glad to aid such a project and the time to accomplish results is now while the much mooted question is being discussed. The success of the plan has been demonstrated in Beloit, Rockford and other cities and Janesville should not be behind time in such a movement. It should, however, be located on the ground floor, in a central location, and if possible should also contain a cafeteria for the convenience of the persons using the building. It is a project worth considering carefully and the ladies must take the first steps in the matter to assure its success.

A SINISTER INFLUENCE.

President Wilson's letter to Democratic Leader Kitchin urging immediate passage of the shipping bill has set the democratic leaders to speculating again as to the cause of the sinister and potent influence exerted on Mr. Wilson by Son-in-law McAdoo. With McAdoo's departure on his South American junket it was supposed the pernicious shipping bill would be permitted to remain quiescent. But even in the absence of his son-in-law Mr. Wilson seems determined to pull that individual's chestnuts out of the fire. Practically every honest and intelligent democrat on congress is at heart opposed to the shipping bill. They realize that the shipyards are crowded with work, that it would take several years to build ships to carry American commerce under the bill's provisions and that at present no ships can be bought for anything like a reasonable price. Just now there are hundreds of German and Austrian ships interned. There are steamers of this class with a carrying capacity of 7,500 tons tied up in Boston harbor alone, and a much larger number in New York. A vast portion of the English commercial fleet has been requisitioned for military purposes. Just as soon as the war is over all of these vessels will return to the carrying trade and the depreciation in value of any ships the government might now purchase can be appreciated. The single meritorious provision of the shipping bill, the creation of a board somewhat similar to the interstate commerce commission to supervise shipping generally, is vitiated by the inclusion among its members of the secretaries of the treasury and navy, which would make it an essentially political, instead of a judicial, organization, apart from the fact that neither of those officials in this administration possess the slightest qualification for the office of judge of shipping rates and regulations. Under these circumstances, if the shipping bill does pass it will be solely due to the efficacy of the patronage club which President Wilson wields with such effectiveness.

THE MODERN OUTLAW.

Some reminiscences and comparisons are suggested by the death of Cole Younger, once a notorious outlaw connected with the James gang. He was said to have taken part in bank and train robberies netting over $100,000.

Youngers' career would not be possible now. The bank breaking business is very slow, that is unless one becomes a cashier or president and breaks in from the inside. The modern bank is too well protected on its exterior. It is more than one night's job to blow open the average vault. The less impermeable kind is not usually worth the risk.

Of course there have been some notable train robberies in the last few years. But this takes much more nerve. They are always chances that some impulsive passenger may pull his gun too. With a leader, any train load of passengers might prove to have several formidable fighting men in it. Telephones cover the country with such a close network that getting the spoil does not mean getting away with it.

And yet there is said to be more crime than ever before. The scene of it has been transferred from the frontier into the heart of the great cities. The Youngers and Jameses of the present day slink around dark streets and sandbag the late and lonely pedestrian. They hold up covering clerks in suburban stores, and rifle the money drawer. The pickings of this business are poor, much less what men of such nerve and address could secure in manufacturing or merchandising.

The los in all this petty crime is not simply the purses and money that are stripped. It is that crime is made to seem easy and attractive to many young men. Cities need to strengthen their police forces, not merely to protect persons and property, but to make crime difficult, and thus save weak-headed young fellows from false and deceiving allurements.

NOTICE TO WATER CONSUMERS
The office of the water department at the city hall will be open every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings from seven until nine o'clock until April 15th.

Masonic Notice: Owing to the T. I. Master's inability to attend, there will be no meeting this evening of Gebel Council, No. 4, R. & T. U.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Fair tonight and Wednesday except unsettled in north portion tonight. Colder tonight.

THE NEW FACTORY.

Contributions for the new factory are progressing slowly at present but the indications are that the final result will be successful. It will mean a decided addition to the business interests of the city and the persons making individual contributions are doing it with a spirit for civic good. The Gazette has opened a list for contributions of small or large sums. The dollars, half dollars and even bills and checks of larger denominations that are being received all give evidence that the people are awake to the situation and wish to their share. Many contributions of small sums come from persons who really can not afford to donate, but their civic pride should shame some of the men and women able to donate far larger sums in active support of the project.

WILLIAM RUGER.
By the death of William Ruger the city of Janesville has lost one of its oldest and most respected citizens.

His friends a loving and wise counselor and his family an affectionate husband and parent. Mr. Ruger's long, active work as a member of the Rock County Bar has left its impression upon the constructive legal work of the state. His influence and worth have been recognized outside his home community and in his death another of the great constructive legal lights of Wisconsin has gone to rest. It is not only a civic loss, but a state loss as well.

Someone asks what has become of the man who used to eat codfish hash every morning for breakfast. Well, about now he is probably dead, and his son is calling up the market to order some of their best lobsters at 75 cents a pound.

Profound disapproval of modern American youth who don't enlist in the army is evinced by many editors sitting in their comfortable swivel chairs in pleasant working quarters.

After complaining because their wives keep the home all stirred up with house cleaning, some men go down to the club and kick because the modern woman shirks house work.

Now that Paris, Tex., Nashville, Tenn., and Augusta, Ga., have had fires with losses of a million or two each, the spring bonfire season may be considered officially open.

Efforts are being made to introduce an annual Potato day to give farmers information about planting them. Every day has been Potato day in many families since meat went up.

After reading about the big fires in three southern cities, thousands of people rush to put on more insurance, but not many proceed to clean up rubbish in their basements.

According to those clear and logical thinkers the stock brokers, the beginning of the war was bad news and the end of the war will be bad news.

The Boy Scouts exemplify their motto "Be Prepared" by raiding the pantry for doughnuts before starting on a hike.

The early spring openings cause the shivers not so much from the lightness of the fabrics as from the height of the prices.

It looks as if all elements in Mexico were uniting to fight for their altars and fires and the privilege of maintaining unstable government.

A rush of applications for pardons to the president is reported. All of course were unjustly imprisoned and have only a few weeks to live.

No opposition to the invasion of Mexico has as yet been reported from the pension attorneys.

Orfordville News

Orfordville, April 4.—Mrs. Elv Erickson of Beloit, spent Sunday with friends in Orfordville. She was a guest at the home of Mrs. Jane Compson.

Carpenters are re-stringing the tobacco warehouse owned by the Orfordville Warehouse company.

There was practically but one ticket on election day. Interest centered around the justice of supreme court and delegates to the national convention.

Dr. T. W. Kuzum and Mr. Kemmerer of Janesville, were in the village on Saturday afternoon. They made the drive out in Mr. Kemmerer's car, but returned by train, preferring to leave the auto for a few days until the roads improve.

UTTERS CORNERS
Mr. and Mrs. John Seitzer have packed their household goods, and before moving them to the township of Magnolia, they will spend some time at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Chas. Maxworthy, of the town of Utters.

An unusually sad death occurred on Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fielstad of the town of Spring Valley, when one of their twin boys, about two and one-half years old, was called by death, and that with scarcely no warning. The little fellow had been ill for a few days with whooping cough, but no one had thought that the trouble was anything serious. On Saturday night the mother had retired to the room adjoining the child, the boy. He had given his mother his mittens at midnight, and then had fallen into a nap. When he awoke an hour or two later it was to find the child dead.

Two representatives of the Borden Condensery of Monroe, were in the village on Monday, contracting with the farmers hereabouts for their milk for the ensuing six months. The matter of ice has been somewhat of an obstacle, but this difficulty now seems to have been overcome.

Mr. Hiram, a practical baker from Brookfield, has purchased the local bakery and with his family has moved to the village. He will commence operations in a day or two. He is residing in the S. Cleveland house near the cemetery.

The ladies of the Lutheran congregation surprised their pastor's wife on Monday afternoon, the occasion being her birthday. They met in the business part of the village and marched to the parsonage, carrying with them valentine presents. Lunch was served and the afternoon was spent in social intercourse. A substantial purse was left for a reminder of the occasion, and everyone joined in wishing Mrs. Kvale many returns of the day.

Convalescent

after a bad cold or a spell of the grippe? You need a safe tonic to help Nature bring back your health and strength, assist the digestion and keep the bowels regular.

This suggests a fair trial of

LEARN HOW SISTER AND NIECE DIED IN LAWRENCE, MASS. FIREMysterious Fire Under Investigation.

—Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars.

Mr. Aaron A. Currier, North Andover, Mass., sister to W. W. Wills, 418 Locust street, and her daughter, Miss Ella Currier, met death Friday in a mysterious fire at Lawrence, Mass., according to Lawrence papers telling of the catastrophe and received here today by Mr. Wills. Fatally injured and burned, Mrs. Jake Katz, at whose home the tragedy occurred, lies in a Lawrence hospital, not expected to live.

The funeral services were held today at the home of Mrs. Currier's sister-in-law and were strictly private.

The Massachusetts state fire board are investigating the fire. The damage to the Katz home is estimated at $1,000, and while the fire was in progress another fire, said to be entirely separate from the Katz fire, was discovered in the basement of the residence about fifty feet away.

Damage to the extent of $8,000 was done here. The blaze was the fourth to be suffered in the Katz residence in the course of two years.

The charred bodies of the women were found, one at the top of a flight of stairs, and one was found dead, shriveling to a cinder. In their attempt to flight they had been overcome by the smoke and suffocated.

Practically the entire interior of the house, with the exception of the roof, was in flames when a hot air explosion occurred. At the home of the bride, Thursday, April 3, Miss Alice Jaeger, Mrs. E. W. Brown of S. Center, returned last Friday from a two weeks' visit with friends in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Zuike and daughter have returned from Ames, Iowa, where they visited relatives.

Clayton Fisher and family were Janesville visitors Sunday.

Charlie Fisher and family visited at the parental home of the former Sunday.

Mrs. C. M. Felland and children visited Sunday afternoon at Mrs. John Goldsmith's.

Mrs. Wm. Ade and Miss Sarah Ade of West Center, were callers at Mrs. Fred Fuller's Friday.

Miss Florence Davis was home from her school at Afton over Sunday.

J. H. Fisher was a business visitor around Brodhead and Juda during last week.

Everybody has set their incubators who have them. Some of the ladies have little chicks.

M. Fox of Janesville, was a business visitor here the past week.

CENTER

Center, April 3.—Indications are that spring has arrived to stay. The roads are drying up fast.

Married at the home of the bride Thursday, April 3, Miss Alice Jaeger.

Mrs. E. W. Brown of S. Center, re-

ANOTHER BICYCLE RIDER

FINED FOR RIDING ON WALK

Otto Bork was fined one dollar and costs, amounting to $3.40 in court this morning, for riding a bicycle on the sidewalk in violation of the city ordinance. He pleaded guilty and paid the fine.

TAKEN WITH CROUP.

"A few nights ago one of my patrons had a child taken with croup," writes M. T. Davis, merchant, Bearsville, W. Va. "About midnight I came to my store and bought a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. Before morning the child was entirely recovered. The parents say they would rather have it for croup and colds than any other medicine." Many such letters have been written about Foley's Honey and Tar, for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough.

W. T. Sherer.

HI-LO ADJUSTABLE STILTS

with every suit

Come get Your Pair

Open

SMITH'S PHARMACY

THE REXALL STORE

Kodaks and Kodak Supplies.

For PilesPyramid File Treatment Is Used At Home and Has Saved a Vast Number from the Horror of Operation.

Don't permit a dangerous operation for piles until you have seen what Pyramid File Treatment can do for you in the privacy of your own home.

Remember Pyramid — Forget Piles.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

Pyramid File Treatment is used at home and has saved a vast number from the horror of operation.

</div

WILLIAM RUGER DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

ESTEEMED CITIZEN OF JANESEVILLE SUCCUMBS AT HIS HOME MONDAY AFT. NOON.

PROMINENT ATTORNEY

HAD PRACTICED AT THE BAR OF THIS STATE FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS, ENJOYING THE HIGHEST REPUTATION.

William Ruger, one of the most respected of Janesville citizens, died at his home on South Bluff street in this city on Monday, April third, about four o'clock in the afternoon. He had been ill for many weeks, although he had heroically continued to work at his home until a short time before his death. His last days were days of much suffering, and death came as a relief to the tired and worn body of our friend.

Mr. Ruger was born in Bridgewater, New York, February 11, 1836. As a boy he came with his parents to Janesville in 1844, since which time he was a continuous citizen of Janesville and constant resident, except for the period spent by him in the service of his country in the civil war.

His father was Rev. Thomas J. Rugg, a clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal church who established a mission of that church in Janesville upon his arrival in 1844, and who became the first rector after the parish was organized.

William Ruger married Marion Roeske at Albany, New York, October 18, 1866. He leaves surviving him the widow, two daughters and two sons.

Mr. Marion Norcross of Highland Park, Illinois; Mrs. Alice S. of Janesville; and Howard Ruger of Baraboo, Wisconsin.

At the outbreak of the war of the rebellion, William Ruger and his brother Edward raised a company of volunteers at Janesville, first known as the "Ruger Guards," and afterwards as Company A of the 13th regiment Wisconsin volunteers.

Upon the formation of the regiment the deceased was commissioned first Lieutenant and adjutant. After serving something more than a year, he was commissioned by President Lincoln as assistant adjutant general of the U.S. volunteers with the rank of captain.

He was wounded at the battle of New Hope Church, in Georgia, and soon after was breveted major for gallant service at that battle and the battle of Resaca, Georgia.

He was mustered out in November, 1865, when he returned to Janesville to continue the practice of the law.

Mr. Ruger was admitted to the bar in 1856 and it may be said that with the exception of the time spent in the civil war, he continued to practice until the hand of death was laid upon him, making a record of continuous service in the legal profession exceeding half a century.

In addition to the many minor interests which enlisted the services and time of many good men, he had three main interests in life: one was his chosen profession; another the church; and another his home and family.

Mr. Ruger was one of the generation that made the Janesville bar famous throughout this part of the country.

He not only had breadth of knowledge, but likewise profound learning and a deep understanding of legal principles.

Where a superficial lawyer looked for cases to sustain a particular point without an appreciation of the principles involved, Mr. Ruger studied his cases that he might trace through the legal principles rooted in the common law and adapted to the needs of a new, changing and more complex civilization.

He was in every sense a great lawyer. He enjoyed a wide and favorable reputation and a large and lucrative practice.

Mr. Ruger was a leader and official in Christ Church of the Protestant Episcopal faith in this city, and a constant attendant upon its services. In the church he, as a Christian gentleman, expressed his beliefs and devotions, sought fellowship with and knowledge of God the Father, and prepared for the eternal life into which he has now entered.

In this church, its history, its services, its promises, and its abundant Christian life he found consolation and uplifting strength all his days. To the same sources his sorrowing widow and children will go for many years to come.

He strengthened, upborne and comforted in their hour of personal loss and family bereavement.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. W. W. Dalton and sons of Clinton, are visiting relatives in this city this week.

Mr. Frank Starr of 606 Milton avenue, entertained this afternoon the members of an auction bridge club.

The afternoon was much enjoyed by the members.

Miss Hilda Snashall has returned from a short visit in Evansville with relatives.

Miss Marguerite Hostwick of Court street, has returned to St. Louis Institute in Mononome to resume her studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis were the guests of friends the first of this week in Milton Junction.

George Bauer of Milwaukee avenue, spent the day on Monday on business in Rockford.

Mrs. Robert Dailey was the guest of Marion Friend the first of the week.

Mrs. James Fifield and daughter Elizabeth, are spending several days in Chicago this week.

Miss Vesta Bradley of Milton avenue, who has been spending her vacation at home, has returned to St. Louis Institute in Mononome, where she is taking a course in domestic science.

John Gowdy of Philadelphia is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Blair, and other relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Hilda Snashall has returned from a short visit in Evansville with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis were the guests of friends the first of this week in Milton Junction.

Mr. Frank Starr of 606 Milton avenue, entertained this afternoon the members of an auction bridge club.

The afternoon was much enjoyed by the members.

Miss Hilda Snashall has returned from a short visit in Evansville with relatives.

Miss Marguerite Hostwick of Court street, has returned to St. Louis Institute in Mononome to resume her studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis were the guests of friends the first of this week in Milton Junction.

George Bauer of Milwaukee avenue, spent the day on Monday on business in Rockford.

Mrs. Robert Dailey was the guest of Marion Friend the first of the week.

Mrs. James Fifield and daughter Elizabeth, are spending several days in Chicago this week.

Miss Vesta Bradley of Milton avenue, who has been spending her vacation at home, has returned to St. Louis Institute in Mononome, where she is taking a course in domestic science.

John Gowdy of Philadelphia is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Blair, and other relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Hilda Snashall has returned from a short visit in Evansville with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis were the guests of friends the first of this week in Milton Junction.

Mr. Frank Starr of 606 Milton avenue, entertained this afternoon the members of an auction bridge club.

The afternoon was much enjoyed by the members.

Miss Hilda Snashall has returned from a short visit in Evansville with relatives.

Miss Marguerite Hostwick of Court street, has returned to St. Louis Institute in Mononome to resume her studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis were the guests of friends the first of this week in Milton Junction.

George Bauer of Milwaukee avenue, spent the day on Monday on business in Rockford.

Mrs. Robert Dailey was the guest of Marion Friend the first of the week.

Mrs. James Fifield and daughter Elizabeth, are spending several days in Chicago this week.

Miss Vesta Bradley of Milton avenue, who has been spending her vacation at home, has returned to St. Louis Institute in Mononome, where she is taking a course in domestic science.

John Gowdy of Philadelphia is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Blair, and other relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Hilda Snashall has returned from a short visit in Evansville with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis were the guests of friends the first of this week in Milton Junction.

George Bauer of Milwaukee avenue, spent the day on Monday on business in Rockford.

Mrs. Robert Dailey was the guest of Marion Friend the first of the week.

Mrs. James Fifield and daughter Elizabeth, are spending several days in Chicago this week.

Miss Vesta Bradley of Milton avenue, who has been spending her vacation at home, has returned to St. Louis Institute in Mononome, where she is taking a course in domestic science.

John Gowdy of Philadelphia is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Blair, and other relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Hilda Snashall has returned from a short visit in Evansville with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis were the guests of friends the first of this week in Milton Junction.

George Bauer of Milwaukee avenue, spent the day on Monday on business in Rockford.

Mrs. Robert Dailey was the guest of Marion Friend the first of the week.

Mrs. James Fifield and daughter Elizabeth, are spending several days in Chicago this week.

Miss Vesta Bradley of Milton avenue, who has been spending her vacation at home, has returned to St. Louis Institute in Mononome, where she is taking a course in domestic science.

John Gowdy of Philadelphia is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Blair, and other relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Hilda Snashall has returned from a short visit in Evansville with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis were the guests of friends the first of this week in Milton Junction.

George Bauer of Milwaukee avenue, spent the day on Monday on business in Rockford.

Mrs. Robert Dailey was the guest of Marion Friend the first of the week.

Mrs. James Fifield and daughter Elizabeth, are spending several days in Chicago this week.

Miss Vesta Bradley of Milton avenue, who has been spending her vacation at home, has returned to St. Louis Institute in Mononome, where she is taking a course in domestic science.

John Gowdy of Philadelphia is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Blair, and other relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Hilda Snashall has returned from a short visit in Evansville with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis were the guests of friends the first of this week in Milton Junction.

George Bauer of Milwaukee avenue, spent the day on Monday on business in Rockford.

Mrs. Robert Dailey was the guest of Marion Friend the first of the week.

Mrs. James Fifield and daughter Elizabeth, are spending several days in Chicago this week.

Miss Vesta Bradley of Milton avenue, who has been spending her vacation at home, has returned to St. Louis Institute in Mononome, where she is taking a course in domestic science.

John Gowdy of Philadelphia is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Blair, and other relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Hilda Snashall has returned from a short visit in Evansville with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis were the guests of friends the first of this week in Milton Junction.

George Bauer of Milwaukee avenue, spent the day on Monday on business in Rockford.

Mrs. Robert Dailey was the guest of Marion Friend the first of the week.

Mrs. James Fifield and daughter Elizabeth, are spending several days in Chicago this week.

Miss Vesta Bradley of Milton avenue, who has been spending her vacation at home, has returned to St. Louis Institute in Mononome, where she is taking a course in domestic science.

John Gowdy of Philadelphia is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Blair, and other relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Hilda Snashall has returned from a short visit in Evansville with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis were the guests of friends the first of this week in Milton Junction.

George Bauer of Milwaukee avenue, spent the day on Monday on business in Rockford.

Mrs. Robert Dailey was the guest of Marion Friend the first of the week.

Mrs. James Fifield and daughter Elizabeth, are spending several days in Chicago this week.

Miss Vesta Bradley of Milton avenue, who has been spending her vacation at home, has returned to St. Louis Institute in Mononome, where she is taking a course in domestic science.

John Gowdy of Philadelphia is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Blair, and other relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Hilda Snashall has returned from a short visit in Evansville with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis were the guests of friends the first of this week in Milton Junction.

George Bauer of Milwaukee avenue, spent the day on Monday on business in Rockford.

Mrs. Robert Dailey was the guest of Marion Friend the first of the week.

Mrs. James Fifield and daughter Elizabeth, are spending several days in Chicago this week.

Miss Vesta Bradley of Milton avenue, who has been spending her vacation at home, has returned to St. Louis Institute in Mononome, where she is taking a course in domestic science.

John Gowdy of Philadelphia is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Blair, and other relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Hilda Snashall has returned from a short visit in Evansville with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis were the guests of friends the first of this week in Milton Junction.

George Bauer of Milwaukee avenue, spent the day on Monday on business in Rockford.

Mrs. Robert Dailey was the guest of Marion Friend the first of the week.

Mrs. James Fifield and daughter Elizabeth, are spending several days in Chicago this week.

Miss Vesta Bradley of Milton avenue, who has been spending her vacation at home, has returned to St. Louis Institute in Mononome, where she is taking a course in domestic science.

John Gowdy of Philadelphia is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Blair, and other relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Hilda Snashall has returned from a short visit in Evansville with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis were the guests of friends the first of this week in Milton Junction.

George Bauer of Milwaukee avenue, spent the day on Monday on business in Rockford.

Mrs. Robert Dailey was the guest of Marion Friend the first of the week.

Mrs. James Fifield and daughter Elizabeth, are spending several days in Chicago this week.

Miss Vesta Bradley of Milton avenue, who has been spending her vacation at home, has returned to St. Louis Institute in Mononome, where she is taking a course in domestic science.

John Gowdy of Philadelphia is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Blair, and other relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Hilda Snashall has returned from a short visit in Evansville with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis were the guests of friends the first of this week in Milton Junction.

George Bauer of Milwaukee avenue, spent the day on Monday on business in Rockford.

Mrs. Robert Dailey was the guest of Marion Friend the first of the week.

Mrs. James Fifield and daughter Elizabeth, are spending several days in Chicago this week.

Miss Vesta Bradley of Milton avenue, who has been spending her vacation at home, has returned to St. Louis Institute in Mononome, where she is taking a course in domestic science.

John Gowdy of Philadelphia is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Blair, and other relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Hilda Snashall has returned from a short visit in Evansville with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis were the guests of friends the first of this week in Milton Junction.

George Bauer of Milwaukee avenue, spent the day on Monday on

EIGHTY-ONE FAIRS TO GET STATE AID

State Will Pay Out $169,545 Toward Premium Lists—Fair Receipts in 1915, $23,297.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
Madison, Wis., April 4.—According to reports of secretaries of Wisconsin county, district and state fairs held during 1915, on file in the office of the secretary of state, Wisconsin, will pay out to eighty-one fairs in 1916, $169,545, all of which is applied to premiums paid by the fairs. All of it goes to the breeders of horticulture, dairymen, poultrymen, floriculturists and for women's work.

Note of this money is applied to special attractions, music, racing or other special features. The state even does not pay anything toward premiums for pet stock.

The eighty-one Wisconsin fairs pay out a total of $228,385.27 for premiums. Deducting state aid, they pay $55,826.21.

It is interesting to note that seventy fairs, eleven not providing racing programs, pay out $21,522.82 for racing and receive no state aid for this feature.

The total receipts of the eighty-one fairs in 1915 were $831,297.16, and the total disbursements $803,167.03. The total receipts include in several instances money borrowed by fairs to meet deficits owing to bad weather and other causes.

Receipts of fairs come from gate receipts, entry fees, subscriptions, concessions, pay attractions and memberships.

The total gate and grandstand receipts amounted to $256,645.36.

Each fair must file with the secretary of state before Feb. 1, each year, a statement of all fair receipts, losses, etc. The secretaries of state then compute each fair's share of state aid. The smaller fairs get eighty per cent of the amount they pay out in premiums. Two fairs receive $5,000 each, and the state fair receives $5,000 annually.

A glance at the gate receipt column shows that some of the county and district fairs have been mispresented in the statement of attendance.

State fair receipts show that the attendance figures given out during the state fair are exact.

Brodhead News

Brodhead, April 3.—The mass meeting held in Broughton's opera house Sunday evening by the no-license people was largely attended. There were addresses by the local clergy and business men. The singing was by a union choir.

A mission will be held by a Passionate Sisters of Chicago at St. Rose's Catholic church April 9 to 16. A feature of these meetings will be a question box. All are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Stephenson were visitors in Janesville Saturday.

Miss Nellie Gardner returned to Appleton Saturday, where she is engaged in teaching school.

Mesdames S. C. Blum and L. V. Dodge were Saturday in Janesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Doyer were Brodhead visitors Saturday.

Mesdames Oscar and K. O. Loftus, Mrs. Jake Marty and Miss Marty, Mrs. Clyde Rossiter and Fern Rosister, Miss Helm and Mrs. Ed. McNair visited Janesville friends Saturday.

Harry Lenz, who has been on the sick list, is able to leave the hospital.

Miss Alice Brady, student at Beloit, has been home the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Head and baby of Platteville spent a portion of the past week at the home of Mrs. and Miss Fessenden and returned home Saturday.

Miss Probst spent the past week at home and returned Saturday to Beloit where she is attending college.

Mrs. C. A. Jahn and Mrs. D. E. Hooker were Janesville visitors Saturday.

George Hunt of Janesville spent Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. West Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Grady are home from a visit of some weeks in California.

Mesdames Ed. Fleming and Leo Dredick spent Saturday in Janesville.

Leonard Blunt returned Saturday from a week spent with friends near Dill.

Gas Baxter of Chicago is here on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Baxter.

Evansville News

State Will Pay Out $169,545 Toward Premium Lists—Fair Receipts in 1915, $23,297.

AUTO PARTY HAVE NARROW ESCAPE WITH CAR IN DITCH.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
Evansville, April 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Loomis and party narrowly escaped more serious injuries Sunday night when their car went over the turnpike near the H. H. Knoebel farm. The party were returning from Oregon at about 10 o'clock, the steering gear on the car giving trouble on the accident occurred. The steering gear became caught, it being impossible to turn the car but one way. Mrs. Loomis and baby were thrown from the front seat over the wind shield and into the ditch. Beyond the bad shock to their nerves and a cold mud bath, the babies were the only injuries suffered. The car was intact, not even the wind shield being broken.

The dormitory girls challenged the dormitory boys to a literary program, the former giving theirs on last Friday night and the latter on the next Friday night. The judges of the contest are Mrs. Frank Frost, P. P. Pulen and Paul Gray. The dormitory girls or the W. C. club as they will be hereafter known, are all dormitory girls representing a regular club meeting, the stage being fitted as a modern club room. Among the numbers on the club program was a talk by Miss Marie Jensen on "Self Government." Miss Nellie Copaner gave a reading of "The Bear Story" by Jas. Whitcomb Riley. Miss Ida Wentz gave a reading of "The Man of the Mountain" which was followed by "The Prophet." The meeting closed with a very effective tableau.

The Boy Scouts left this afternoon on a "treasure hunt." Thursday night the league patrol will meet at 7 o'clock at the Baptist church to contest for the title of best runner, boxer and wrestler.

Those from out-of-town here to the funeral of the late Mrs. Marie Bowles were Mrs. and Mrs. Paul Bear and Mr. and Mrs. George Bear of Brodhead; John Bear of Juda; Albert Neil of Beloit; August Nehl and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nehl of Janesville.

Mrs. W. W. Blunt and children returned Sunday night from a few days visit with relatives in Janesville.

Mrs. H. H. Schlesin and Mrs. Stir were Madison visitors yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Baldwin of Brooklyn spent Sunday at the Arthur Dilling residence Saturday.

George Elburt of Chicago was a business visitor in this city Saturday.

Principal and Mrs. J. F. Waddell are moving into a portion of the A. C. Gray house on Church street.

Mrs. E. S. Cary visited relatives in Janesville yesterday.

Leedie Denison was a Janesville visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thurman are moving into the Arnes Weaver residence on Main street.

Sunday began with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Brown.

Clifford Pearseil has returned to Chicago after spending a week here with his parents.

Miss Beulah Day has resumed her school duties at Lake Mills after spending the vacation here with her parents.

Miss Minnie McBrady of Fellows spent the week end at her parental home in this city.

Charles Day has returned to Chicago after spending a week here at his parents' home.

Mrs. M. J. Ludden and daughters, Miss Mary and Mrs. Will Bliven, spent Saturday in Janesville.

THIS AGE IS AGAINST HIM.

"I am 52 years old and I have been troubled with kidneys and bladder for a good many years," writes Arthur Jones, Allen, Kas. "My age causes me to ever get constipated, but Foley Kidney Pills do me more good than any thing I ever tried." Many people suffer from kidney trouble who need not suffer when they can get Foley Kidney Pills. Mr. Jones in a later letter says if it was not for them he would never be able to work in the hay field. Rheumatism, aching back, shooting pains, stiff joints, all have been relieved.—W. T. Sherer.

DODGE BROS. MOTOR CARS $785

Perfect balance of light, strong parts contributes to economy as well as efficient performance.

A. A. RUSSELL & CO.

27-29 South Bluff St.

NEWS NOTES from MOVIELAND by DAISY DEAN

"THE SPIDER" IS AN INTERESTING STORY

Pauline Frederick Portrays a Double Role in Her Latest Picture Play.

In "The Spider" which was shown at the Apollo yesterday to large houses, Pauline Frederick is given unlimited opportunity of displaying her adaptability. The story is rather remarkable in giving so much character scope to one individual, and Miss Frederick is remarkable in her adequate handling of the opportunity.

There is a good little plot that keeps on the general line of the story.

Pauline Frederick is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Atkinson.

Mr. Atkinson is a member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

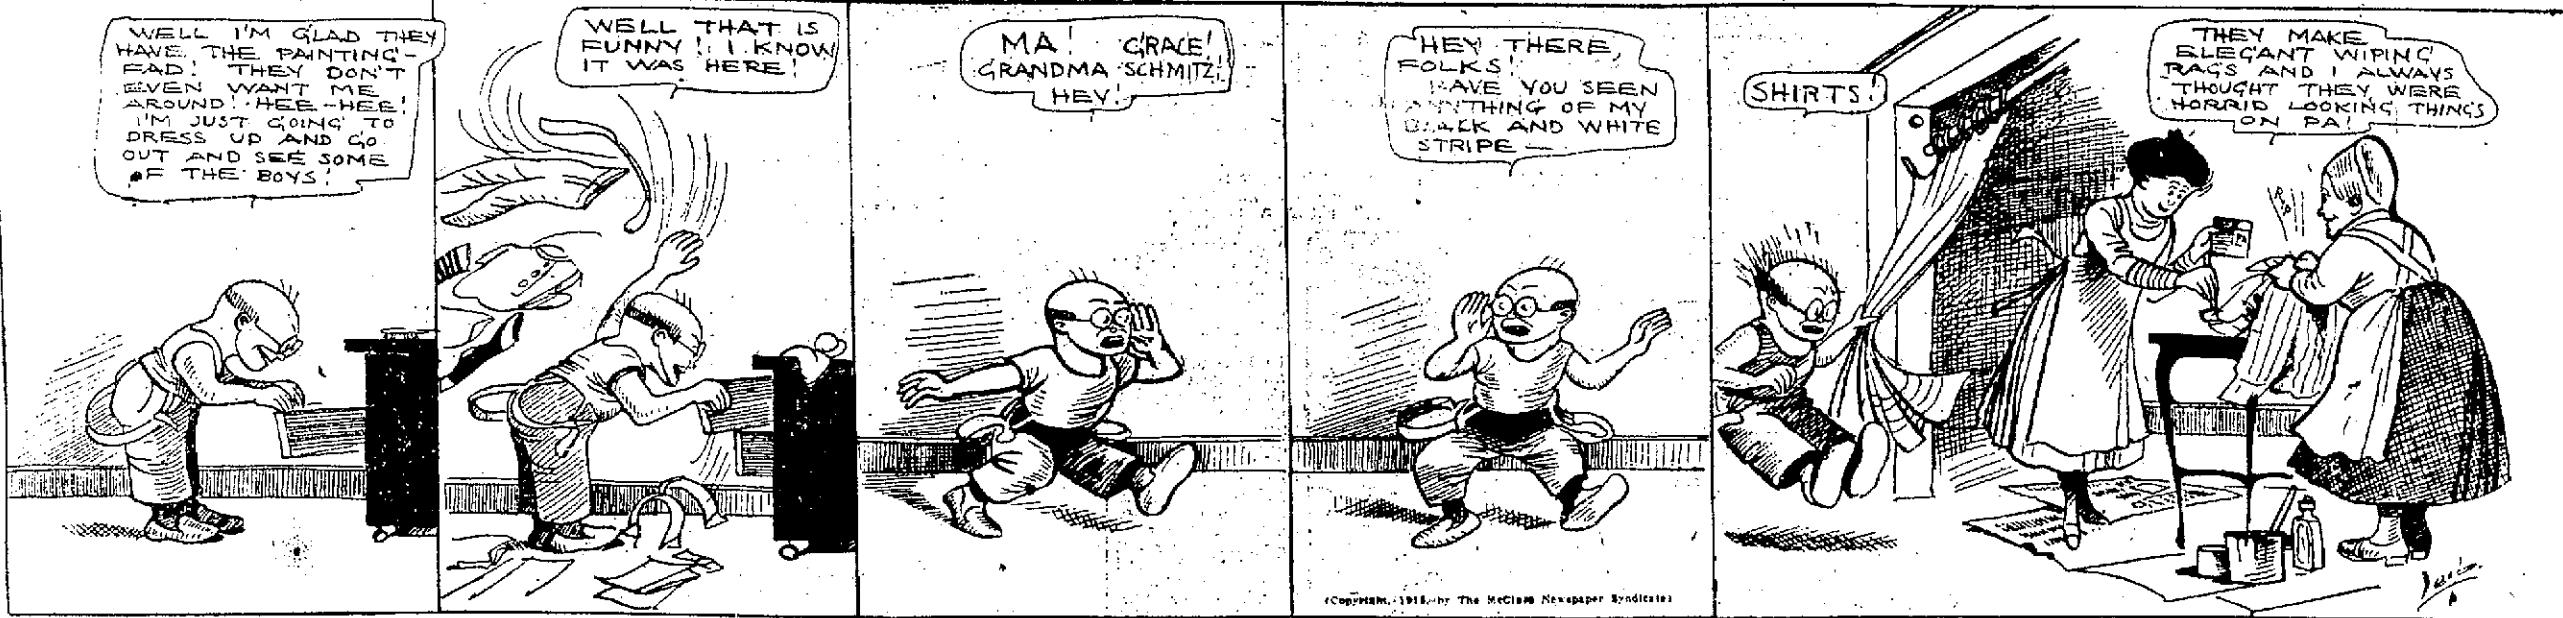

Pauline Frederick is a

member of the

French

ambassadorial

party.

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—No. Father Isn't Getting Off So Easy After All.

BY F. LEIPZIGER

In and Out.
Wigg—There seems to be quite a difference between a job and a situation.
Wagg—Oh, yes! For instance, when a fellow loses his job he often finds him self in an embarrassing situation.—Philadelphia Record.

Corns Come Off Like Banana Peel

Wonderful, Simple "Gets-It" Never Fails to Remove Any Corn Easily.

"Wouldn't it be nice? Here I've been going along for years, with one desperate corn after another, trying to get rid of them with salves that eat off the toes, Resist! Use Sure "Gets-It" for Those Corns and Save Your Life and Your Toes!

tips that stick to the stocking, bandages and plasters that make a package of the most irritating things you can imagine, and so on. Then I tried "Gets-It" just once, and not only to have seen that corn come off just like a banana peel!" It's simple, wonderful! It's the new way, painless, effective in two seconds, never leaves healthy flesh or irritates. Nothing is less of the corn. Never fails. Quite the new way for once, anyway and try "Gets-It" tonight. For corns, calluses, warts and blisters.

"Gets-It" is sold everywhere. See a druggist, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in Janesville and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Red Cross Pharmacy and McCus.

The laxative tablet with the pleasant taste

If you are bilious or constipated

They keep your System as clean as a stone jug rinsed with cold spring water

We have the exclusive selling rights for this great laxative

The Rexall Store

SMITH DRUG CO.

STOMACH AGONIES DUE TO POISON

One Dose of Remedy Sweeps Pain Away—Hundreds of Thousands Restored.

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy is unlike any other. It sweeps the bile and Putrescent Catarrhal Accretions from the System. Soothes and allays inflammation in the Intestinal Tract—the cause of serious and fatal ailments, such as Gall Stones, Appendicitis, Acute Indigestion, Cancer and Ulcers of the Stomach and intestines, Yellow Jaundice, Constipation, Gas Bells, Auto Intoxication, etc., etc. In every locality there are grateful people who owe their complete recovery to Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. Thousands say it has saved them from the grave. The most thorough system cleanse known. Contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. FREE book sent on Stomach Ailments. Address Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, Chicago. Better yet, obtain a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy from J. P. Baker or any reliable druggist, who will refund your money if it fails.

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

"Pardon—a thousand pardons for the intrusion, lady. I am Almer, of the Hotel Splendide."

"You haven't remembered something more or less?" Jane challenged brightly.

"Oh, no, lady!" Almer spread out his hands. "I happened to see you here watching the parade, and I remembered a trivial duty I have which, if I may be so bold as to ask, you may discharge much more quickly than I—if you will."

"I discharge a duty—for you!" The girl did not conceal her puzzlement when Almer's hand fumbled in a pocket of his flapping alpaca coat and produced a plain silver cigarette case, unmonogrammed. She looked at it wonderingly.

WOMAN'S PAGE

Heart and Home PROBLEMS

—By—
MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON
Letters may be addressed to MRS. THOMPSON
in care of the Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) After a fellow has several times escorted a girl of seventeen home from dances and parties should she allow him to kiss her. Is it right for her to kiss him?

(2) Should decent boys and girls of my age and older even play kissing games at parties?

(3) I went to a party where they played kissing games. I disappointed many of the young people there because I refused to do the kissing games. If it ever happens again that they play it where I am should I do as the others do? If not what should I say? I don't like to do it, but I hate to disappoint my friends.

CONSTANT READER—
(1) She should neither kiss a boy nor allow herself to be kissed unless she is engaged to him.

(2) Boys and girls in the better families do not play kissing games. I know of no cheaper form of amusement.

(3) If you have any idea that the young people are going to play kissing games, stay away from the party; and if they play when you do not expect it, do just as you did at the party you mention.

Respect yourself too highly to submit to being kissed as promiscuously as you would be at such a party.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) What will take off freckles and tan?

(2) What will make the eyebrows heavy?

(3) Almost every time I eat candy or sweets my face breaks out and some of the pimples leave brown places. What can I do to remove them?

(4) What will remove warts?

(5) Will Panama hats be worn this summer? SALLY.

(6) Freckle lotion: Two drams oxide of zinc, one-quarter dram sub-

HEALTH TALKS

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D., in care of the Gazette

Letters may be addressed to Wm. A. BRADY, M. D., in care of the Gazette

DANGERS OF CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL.

Our medical forefathers made quite as many mistakes as we make to-day. Two of their greatest mistakes were calomel and castor oil.

Calomel, theoretically, did something to the liver. It was supposed that calomel increased the flow of bile and facilitated the discharge of bile from the liver into the bowel, or something vaguely like that. Practically, there isn't any reason to think calomel increases the flow of bile or in any way affects the liver any more than other laxative drugs. Experimentally, calomel rather tends to diminish bile secretion. Furthermore, calomel very often nauseates, and occasionally, even in small one-tenth grain doses, satisifies the victim.

Castor oil, the most repulsive of all domestic medicines, is an irritant to the intestine, although it is an oil of the bowel, and is hence sometimes prescribed in cases of acute diarrhea or summer complaint. But this binding influence makes castor oil unsuitable for a laxative for frequent or regular use. Indeed, one of the commonest causes of constipation in children is too ready resort to castor oil when a laxative is desired.

Both castor oil and calomel have been found to produce a marked appearance of red blood corpuscles in the stools—not visible blood, but red corpuscles, which can be seen only with the microscope. Now a cathartic which does that is objectionable for frequent use.

The calomel and castor oil habit is only a habit, even among doctors. We know, because we have found that neither remedy is ever necessary. There are invariably less injurious, and more agreeable substitutes to use. Of course, if a doctor is desired.

The Gall-Sac.

A reader writes to say that interested in an article trending upon gall-sac troubles she has failed to find one relating to her particular trouble. If she will send a stamped addressed envelope we shall be glad to let her have a complete set of those which have already been published.

SIDE TALKS

—By—RUTH CAMERON

WAS IT FAIR?

What a complete world this is! A friend of mine has lost her position as soloist in the Church choir. The position meant a good deal to her. She has, to my knowledge, filled it creditably for several years, and she has depended upon it. The money which she earned at this work made it possible for her to live at home with her folks instead of going to the city to seek work.

Now she has lost this position, not because she failed in any of its obligations or because the congregation was dissatisfied, but because another woman offered to fill it—

Her Motives Were Good, But—

Without doubt this woman's motives were good. She wanted to help the Church. And equally without doubt she has done harm as well as good. She has deprived an honest worker of her work.

What are the ethics of this situation?

Was it fair for this woman to do this, or wasn't it?

Of course if this were an isolated case I should not waste space in

Purify the Complexion
Do not be troubled with complexion ills. Keep all blemishes concealed while you are treating them. You can do this instantly without detection by using

Gouraud's

Oriental Cream
It will also assist you to overcome "heat-ills" at the same time if they do not originate internally. Renders the skin soft, pebbly-white appearance. Non-greasy.

FRED. T. HOPKINS & SON, New York City

13

writing about it, but it is not isolated, it is typical.

The woman who offers her services for nothing because she can afford to do it may not be so common, but the girl or woman who is willing to work for a wage below the living wage because she has someone who helps support her, and who uses her earnings only for luxuries, is a familiar figure.

At first one feels tempted to say, Out upon all such! They should stay at home and leave the positions to those who really need them.

Yet Shall We Deny the Right to Work to Her?

And yet, when I am thinking of a girl who doesn't need to work, she could stay at home and amuse herself in the social round of a small suburb. But "I hate it," she says. "I'm bored and restless and miserable unless I'm working."

Have we a right to deny the great boon of work to her?

It's a difficult problem, isn't it?

It seems to me that any girl who works for a business concern should demand the money she is worth, and not just pin money to buy luxuries with. If she wants to give the excess to charity, so much the better.

And any girl who thinks of giving her services to a charity or philanthropy should first look about carefully to see whom such an act would affect.

What do my reader friends think about it?

With my Letter Friends.

Questions—Should a girl that still loves a man who has become indifferent to her marry another party in order to avoid a lonely life?

Answer—Marriage without love is always dangerous, but then marriage with what commonly passes for love is also dangerous. To take your individual case: suppose the man you loved came back into your life and you were married to the other, what then? Does the man you think

Kidnapped

By MRS.
EVA LEONARD

About half-past nine the phone rang. The doctor answered. Olive was lying on the lounge with closed eyes. She heard him in the machine, "Come the answer."

"Yes, this is Dr. Ellison talking. How's that?" after a pause.

"On what road did you say you saw the woman?"

Olive sat up.

"That's very strange. We have spent the entire afternoon trying to locate a woman, description to that on the road running east from Judson's Corners, where she was set down by Mr. Farmer on Monday about two o'clock. He said he saw her start down toward the east.

Olive rose, and the doctor beckoned to her to come near enough to hear the conversation. He held the receiver so that both could hear.

"I saw her first leading the little child. As I came nearer she picked it up. The child was crying and she was trying to comfort it. I stopped my machine and offered to let her off. She seemed very grateful, as the child was very tired and she was too heavy to carry. She gave me an account of herself and supposed she was going to visit some neighbor near there. When she said nothing about my putting her down I asked her where she was going. She said to Burleigh, a town fifteen miles from where I picked her up. I drove out of my way to set her down there. It must have been about six o'clock when I left her at the first house in town, where she said she wanted to go."

"Ask how she treated the child?"

(To be continued.)

NAME ORPHAN CHILD FOUND BY ROADSIDE AFTER METZ

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.

To clean vinegar crusts, flower vases or any badly stained bottles —wash crushed egg shells, moistened with a little water. Shake well until all stains are removed. Make receipts look like new.

To Set Colors in Wash Goods—Add

a handful of salt to a pail three-fourths full of hot water; also two tablespoons turpentine. Immerse the wash in this and let it remain until water is cold. This will set the colors permanently.

Rice water is better than starch for stiffening fine lingerie, waists, etc. Simply boil rice in plenty of water; strain, put rice away for cooking purposes, using water for starch.

Mix equal parts of cold coffee and lard oil for a good furniture polish.

THE TABLE.

Tapioca Pudding—One-half cup tapioca, soaked, one-half pint milk heated, with tapioca in double boiler, salt to taste; two eggs (wholes only) beaten, one-half cup sugar stirred with the egg, add to tapioca. Make meringue with beaten whites and brown.

Vegetable Oyster Soup—Two cups

salsify cleansed, sliced; one piece of salted codfish about two inches square, cool till tender, lump of butter (more butter the better). Beat egg, add little water, mix into flour and work rather stiff. Roll and eat and put with potato and onions. Cool about fifteen minutes. An excellent substitute for meat.

Italian Spaghetti—Two cups spaghetti, one cup of stewed tomatoes, four slices bacon, one-half cup of grated cheese, one-half cup green peppers, chopped; pinch salt; boil spaghetti fifteen minutes, then let cold water run over it, then take the bacon and cut in small pieces and brown in frying pan, put in your spaghetti, tomatoes, grated cheese, green pepper and salt, and let boil very slow for half an hour.

Baked Sugared Ham—One slice ham, two inches thick; two cups light brown sugar, one tablespoon ground nutmeg, one-half cup cream, rub the sugar and nutmeg mixed into the ham, put in greased baking dish; cover with milk and bake about three hours in a slow oven.

Fruit Salad—Two oranges, four bananas, one-half cup sugar, one cup shredded coconut, one-half box gelatin. Cut the fruit in small pieces and add sugar. Dissolve gelatin, then add coconut with gelatin and pour over fruit. Place in ice box and cool thoroughly. Serve with whipped cream.

Peanut Butter Dates—Dates filled with peanut butter and rolled in sugar are much better for children than if filled with the whole nuts.

Frosting—Put teacup powdered sugar in bowl, add two tablespoons boiling coffee (strong), two tablespoons grated chocolate or cocoa, one tablespoon melted butter, a little vanilla. Beat until right consistency to spread.

Ohio Cake—Two cups sugar, not quite two-thirds cup butter, three cups flour, one cup sweet milk, three eggs, three teaspoons baking powder.

When mixed well, put two-thirds of the mixture in two tins. To the remaining one-third add three tablespoons molasses, one-fourth teaspoon cloves, one-half teaspoon cinnamon, one cup seeded and chopped raisins. Bake this in the third tin.

Muffins—For Two—Butter size of egg, one tablespoon sugar, one egg. Beat all to a cream and add half cup sweet milk, pinch of salt, one cup flour and one teaspoon baking powder.

WE ARE WISE.

We've got you listed, yes we have, we've got you down, you bet; there never was a plier put it over us on yet, the thing you are shows on your map, we know just where you're at, we've got your number, do not think we're talking through our hat. If you are boasting it about when you should be in bed, and hit the trill next morning with a badly aching head, your showing will be mighty punk, well have you on our list, and label you rounder and you soon will be dismissed. The guy that's grouchy on the job can't give to us the slip, we know there is a reason why—a cause that rocks the ship. The shriveled shrimp that's crooked and the gezer with no heart, are branded by their inmost thoughts, we've got them on our chart; so with St. Paul we say to thee, "Think of the things that's clean," for on your map is printed plain the thoughts with you.

With my Letter Friends.

Questions—Should a girl that still loves a man who has become indifferent to her marry another party in order to avoid a lonely life?

Answer—Marriage without love is always dangerous, but then marriage with what commonly passes for love is also dangerous. To take your individual case: suppose the man you loved came back into your life and you were married to the other, what then? Does the man you think she seemed very solicitous about it. It went to sleep shortly after she got in the machine," came the answer.

"What time did you say you came up with her?" queried the doctor.

"It must have been about three o'clock." The doctor and Olive exchanged glances.

"How far is this place from Judson's Corners?" was the next question.

Judson's Corners is on a road parallel to the Burleigh road and about a mile west of it, was the response.

"Is there any road connecting the two thoroughfares?" asked the doctor.

"I do not think so. At least it is no road fit for machine travel."

"I thought so. I went over all that ground pretty carefully today. I wonder if she could have gone through the fields. Are you familiar with the country around there?" continued the doctor.

"Only as one sees it from a machine, I have no hand to get out and explore for you," replied the doctor.

"You will excuse the question. It is a very vital matter to me, as you can readily see. I am deeply grateful to you for calling me up and putting me on to the trail again. Please give me your name and number. I may think of some other questions I would like to ask after I have been over the ground."

The doctor wrote down the address and telephone number on a card and hung up the receiver.

"There is no doubt in my mind that we are on the track of the kidnapper," he said turning to his wife. "She doubled over her track to throw the farmer off. Pretended she was going east and when he was out of sight went back and in some way got over to the Burleigh road, a mile farther west."

"I see a light over at Nell's. Let's go over and talk the matter over with them. They are very helpful," said Olive, turning from the window.

(To be continued.)

INDIA TEA

Strength and Economy Make It the Ideal Coffee Substitute

300 CUPS TO THE POUND

ONE TEASPOONFUL MAKES TWO CUPS

Published by the Growers of India Tea

FOUND BODY OF

THE RATE FOR ADVERTISEMENTS in these classified columns is one cent per word per insertion. Nothing less than 25c accepted. Cash discount 25 per cent if paid at time order is given. Charge accounts 1 cent per word.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

WHEN YOU THINK of insurance think of C. P. BEERS. 1-28-41. RAZORS HONEY—25c. Perfume Bros. 27-41. WANT-ED—Panel delivery and light traying. E. J. Bennett, Wells Fargo office. H. C. phone 277, bell phone 604. Residence bell phone 604. 1-29-41. TAYLOR VOICE CULTURE—Accurate placement and development of the voice. Central Block, Janesville, Wis. 1-16-41.

SITUATION WANTED—Female

WANTED—By a good young strong woman, washing and house cleaning. Address "G. L. Gazette." 3-4-16-30.

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WANTED—At once, several girls, competent to sew in Alterton Dept. J. M. Postwick & Sons. 4-4-4-43d.

WANTED—Experienced dining room maid. Address "G. L. Gazette." 4-4-4-43d.

WANTED—A girl to work in pop corn stand. Steady job. Inquire corner Franklin and Milwaukee Sts. Old phone 555-1111.

WANTED—Chamber maids, private houses, hotels. Mrs. E. McCarthy, licensed Agt. Both phones 54-3-411.

MALE HELP WANTED

WANTED—Man to work by month, steady work. Rathjens Greenhouse. 5-4-4-43d.

WANTED—Man to work on farm. W. H. Q. R. C. phone 5-4-4-404.

WANTED—Boy or man to work on farm by month or year. Address "G. L. Gazette." 5-4-3-33.

WANTED—Single man by month, for general farm work. Sober. Farm at Marion, Clinton phone. Geo. B. Inman. 5-4-3-24.

WANTED—Reliable man who likes flowers, to talk our ornamental trees and shrubs in his own locality. Permanent position. Full pay weekly. No collecting or delivering. Established thirty years. References, Brown Brothers Nurseries, Rochester, N. Y. 5-4-4-411.

WANTED—Good boy to work in store and make himself generally useful. A splendid chance to learn the Dry Goods business. Apply at once. T. H. Evans Co. 5-4-3-31.

WANTED—A young man to work in our domestic Dept. Apply at once. T. H. Evans Co. 5-4-3-31.

WANTED—Experienced farm hand by the season. $30 per month. No board need apply. Chas. E. Jones, Janesville Rte. 7. 5-4-3-33.

WANTED—Bright young man for stock room. Chance to learn business. Inquire F. W. Woolworth Co. 5-4-3-42d.

WANTED, MISCELLANEOUS

WANTED—Washing and cleaning by day or night. Call after 6 P. M. N. C. phone 205. S. Franklin. 3-4-3-31.

WANTED—Washing to do at home. Prices reasonable. No ironing. Old phone 562. 6-4-3-43d.

CASTS REGISTER—WANTED—Good prices for summer resort concessions. Care "G. L. Gazette" Printing Co. 6-4-3-43d.

LET ME FIGURE on your Pebble dash, concrete and mason work. Arthur Stowe. Bell phone 1065. 6-3-30-6t.

WANTED—500 lbs. clean wiping rags. Gazette. 8-3-3t.

FLORISTS

MISS RATHJEN, floral designs a specialty. 413 W. Milwaukee St. 1-21-41.

SHOE REPAIRING*

ELECTRIC SHOE REPAIRING DONE PROMPTLY. Shoes cleaned and repaired. Call bell 123. R. C. 477. 11 S. Main. 5-4-4-411.

PAPER HANGING

PAPER HANGING AND PAINTING—W. D. Gower, new phone 697, red. 56-4-3-43d.

WANTED—Painting and paper hanging. Rock Co. phone Red 656. 56-4-1-12d.

DO YOUR PAPER HANGING and painting before the rush. Call W. D. Gower. Phones. R. C. 655, white, 21-400. 56-3-31-4t.

PAPER HANGING—A specialty on all kinds of paper. All work guaranteed first class. Paul Deverksen, phone 688. R. C. 323, red. 633. South Jackson street. 56-3-23-24t.

FURNISHED ROOMS TO RENT

FOR RENT—Furnished room, side entrance. 215 N. Jackson. 8-4-1-31.

FOR RENT—Two furnished rooms on ground floor. Facing the park. E. Fredendall. 8-4-1-31.

LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS.

FOR RENT—Suite, modern furnished light housekeeping rooms. Would two nurses. Call 123. Red, new phone. 63-4-4-43d.

FOR RENT—Three furnished rooms for light housekeeping. 446 N. 2nd St. Old phone 1810. 8-4-3-31.

FOR RENT—2 furnished housekeeping rooms, close in. Bell phone 1291. 8-4-1-31.

FLATS FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Two flats. 18 N. Main. 45-4-4-43d.

FOR RENT—5 room flat. 625-3-4d.

FOR RENT—Six room steam heated flat. F. L. Stevens. Lovejoy 45-4-1-41d.

FOR RENT—5 or 6 room flat. 310 W. St. 45-4-1-41d.

FOR RENT—5 room steam heated flat. 314 So. Main. 45-2-1-41d.

HOUSES FOR RENT

FOR RENT—By May 1st, a modern 3 room house. Phone 742, red. 11-4-4-43d.

FOR RENT—Nine room house at West Mineral Point and Chatham. 11-4-4-43d.

FOR RENT—3 room house, electricity, gas, city and soft water. Inquire 111 Walker St. 11-4-3-43d.

FOR RENT—Modern 7 room house in good condition. Phone 573 black. 11-4-3-31.

FOR RENT—Half of house, 422 N. L. A. Babcock. 413 North 14-1-3t.

FOR RENT—Modern 7 room house, location. Close in. Inquire 22 Wisconsin St. 11-4-3-43d.

FOR RENT—Seven room house with All modern improvements. Address "Rent" Gazette. 11-3-31-4d.

Want Ads Did More Than the Highest Expectations

FOR SALE—Six good Poland China brood sows due to farrow first week in May. Also two Durham heifers coming two years old. M. Denning, 5651-M. 21-8-27-31.

Janesville Gazette:

Dear Sirs:
I wish to announce through your paper the satisfactory returns from the ad of the 29th you inserted. I sold all the following day and at prices above what I had at first decided to accept. I made at least a profit of $25 more than I expected. Publicity made competition.

Thanking you I am yours very truly

M. DENNING.

Why Not Try the Want Ads Yourself

FOR SALE—Medium Red Clover Seed. Early potatoes. W. J. Clarke, R. C. phone 5857-Q. 23-4-1-43d.

FOR SALE—Early six weeks seed potatoes. 8c per bushel delivered. Bert Lloyd, R. C. phone 23-4-1-3t.

FOR SALE—Heavy, white seed oats, average 200 lbs. per grain bag. Bell phone 1887. 23-4-1-3t.

FOR SALE—A strain of Spanish tobacco seed which has a large size and quality. This is 1914 seed, as last year's is not good. 35c per oz. Albert Schnell, 1130 Milton Ave. 23-3-14-41d.

FOR SALE—Practically new upright piano or will exchange for stock. E. N. Fredendall. 36-4-1-3t.

BOATS AND ACCESSORIES

FOR RENT—After April 1st, part of a brick building at rear Park Hotel for storage, repair shop, etc. Inquire at Gazette. 33-3-18-41d.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

FOR SALE—Practically new upright piano or will exchange for stock. E. N. Fredendall. 36-4-1-3t.

POULTRY AND HOUSEHOLD PETS

FOR SALE—Eggs for setting, from pens of prize-winning Single Comb Buff Lescorns, Silver Spangled Hamburrs, and Rose Comb Rhode Island Whites. L. L. Hilton, 1205 Vista Ave. North. R. C. phones blue 931 and red 528. 22-3-29-41t.

HORSES AND CARRIAGES

FOR SALE—Bay horse. Weight 1200 lbs. Perfectly sound. Bell phone 1603. 27-3-18-41t.

FOR SALE—Horse, buggy and harness, wght. 1200. F. O. Wheeler, Milton, Wis. 4-1-4-3d-Sat-Tues-Thurs.

FOR SALE—Good work horse and driver. New phone 5582M. 26-3-31-4d.

FOR SALE—Cheap if taken at once, tandem wagon and harness. Also single harness and buggy. 700 Center Ave. Bell phone 1084. R. C. phone 646 black. 13-3-20-41t.

LIVESTOCK

FOR SALE—Chester White Sows due to farrow in April and May. W. W. Wright, Edgerton, Wis. Phone 348. F. 22. 21-4-4-43d.

FOR SALE—Two Guernsey cows. Both milking. 1528 Roger Ave. Phone 208 white. 21-4-3-43d.

WANTED TO BUY—Carload of heavy young Holstein cows must be fresh. Address "Cows" care Gazette. 13-3-16-41t.

HARDWARE

FOR SALE—Physician's office outfit. Operating chair, gynecological chair, nebulizer, sterilizer instruments, etc. Inquire Mrs. E. M. Sartell, 9 North Main St. 13-4-3-43d.

FOR SALE—Newspaper matrices, size 17x23 inches; good for lining kitchen houses or other buildings to seat them air tight, price one cent each. Gazette office. 13-12-10-41t.

FOR SALE—Arrow Bicycles at Preme Bros. 13-2-4-43d.

FOR SALE—Complete map of Rock County, showing all roads, school houses, churches, towns, villages, etc., railroads, farms with number of acres and all information. Printed on strong 300 lb. paper, half size, price 25c. Free with year's advance subscription to the Daily Gazette.

FOR SALE—Old newspapers, 5 cents bundle. Gazette Office. 13-5-4-43d.

FOR SALE—Religious articles, crucifixes, prayer books, etc. at St. Joseph's convent. 13-10-11-41t.

FOR SALE—Newspaper matrices, size 17x23 inches; good for lining kitchen houses or other buildings to seat them air tight, price one cent each. Gazette office. 13-12-10-41t.

FOR SALE—Arrow Bicycles at Preme Bros. 13-2-4-43d.

FOR SALE—Cheep, one Bosch magneto for Ford car and one large tire pump, two heavy robes. One Spido light. Can be seen at Alder's Garage. 18-4-3-43d.

FOR SALE—At a bargain. Serviceable Red Truck. In good condition, capacity 1500 lbs. Good machine for some farmer. Helms Seed Store. Will make low price. 18-4-3-43d.

AUTOMOBILE AND TIRE REPAIRING, tires, tubes and accessories. Janesville Vulcanizing Co. 102 N. Main St. 18-11-13-41t.

MOTOR CYCLES

ONE 1914 EAGLE MOTORCYCLE for sale, in good order. Cheap for quick sale. Arvid Lind, Rte. 8, Box 37-4-1-3t.

MOTOR CYCLES AND BICYCLE REPAIRS. Knives and scissors sharpened. Saws filed. Go-carts repaired. C. H. Cox Corn Exchange. 37-11-20-41t.

BICYCLES

WANTED—To sell bicycle at reasonable price. Old phone 1078. 48-4-4-43d.

FAIRIES RACIBLE BICYCLES—"It's all in the crane hanger." H. L. McNamara. 3-29-1-41t.

TALK TO LOWELL for bicycles. 48-3-21-41t.

HIGH GRADE BICYCLES. C. H. Cox. 48-12-30-41t.

BLUE STREAK Bicycle Tires. $2.50. Talk to Lowell. 48-3-21-41t.

PREMO BROTHERS for Bicycles. 48-11-29-41t.

FARM MACHINERY.

FOR SALE—Full line of John Deere farm machinery. Van Brunt drills; Dan's side delivery hay rakes and loaders. De Laval cream separators. Nischart Implement Company. 18-2-8-41t.

FOR SALE OR RENT

Seven acres of very good land with good buildings.

J. E. KENNEDY Sutherland Blk.

PATENTS SELL YOUR IDEAS
OLIPHANT & YOUNG
97 WIS. STREET BRANCH OFFICE
MILWAUKEE WIS. WASHINGTON D.C.

FOR SALE
Eight room house on Milwaukee Ave. Nearly new. Hardwood floors.

Kemmerer & Dooley
R. C. phone 12 or R. C. 1009 Black.
Old phone 69.

OAT SMUT

The U. S. Government and State Agricultural College recommend Sol Formaldehyde for smut in oats, barley or scabby potatoes. There is nothing so good or so cheap to use. Bring in your bottles and save money. We buy it by the barrel.

Badger Drug Company
Cor. Milwaukee & River Sts.

AUCTIONS

SEND FOR FREE BOOKLET Entitled "Auction Sales and How to Prepare for Them," containing a lot of useful information on getting up an auction and the arrangement of details. A post card will bring it. Address The Janesville Gazette.

FARM IMPLEMENTS

FOR SALE—Three 2nd hand spreaders, a 2nd hand De Laval separator and one Sharples separator, two 2nd hand gang plows. Nischart Implement Co. 13-3-16-41t.

STRAYED

BRITAIN'S ATTITUDE EXPLAINED BY ENVOY

Five Principles of Briton are Different From Those of Germany, Says Viscount Bryce. (BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

London, April 4.—Viscount Bryce, former Ambassador at Washington, has written an article on "The attitude of Great Britain in the present war," in which he says:

"We in Britain who respect and value the opinion of the free neutral peoples of Europe and America can not but desire that those peoples should be duly informed of the way in which we regard the circumstances and possible results of the present conflict."

Lord Bryce says there are five principles on which the aims and ideals of Britain in the present crisis are essentially different from those of Germany, namely, as to individual liberty; as to nationality, which sympathizes with the efforts of a people against foreign dominion; as to the maintenance of treaty obligations; as to the regulation of the methods of war; and in interests of humanity; and as to a pacific as opposed to the military type of civilization. He compares the British and German attitude on each of these principles. Continuing, he says:

"Our English ideal for the future is of a world in which every people shall have within its own borders a free national government resting on, and conforming to, the general will of its citizens; a government able to devote itself to improving the condition of the people without encroaching on its neighbors, or being disturbed by the fear of an attack from enemies abroad. Legislators and administrators have already taken tasks sufficiently difficult in reconciling the claims of different classes, in adjusting the interests of capital and labor, in promoting health and diffusing education and enlightenment, without the addition of those tasks and dangers which arise from the terror of foreign war."

"I cannot believe that the German people, as I have hitherto known them, ever since I studied at a German university more than fifty years ago, could possibly approve of the action of their Government if their Government suffered them to know the facts regarding the origin and conduct of the war, or the facts known to the rest of the world."

"We have had no hatred of the German people. We did not grudge them their prosperity. Neither have we any wish to break up Germany, destroying her national unity, or to interfere in any way with her internal politics. Our quarrel is with the German government. We think it is a danger to every peaceful country and to every nation fighting against its doctrines, its ambitions, its methods of warfare, we and our Allies are virtually fighting the battle of all peace-loving neutral nations as well as our own."

"We must fight on till victory is won, for a Government which sacrosanct treaties and wages an inhuman warfare against innocent non-combatants cannot be suffered to prevail over a massive Germany."

"A triumph of the German navy of the seas as well as of the land would be a menace to every nation, even to those of the Western Hemisphere."

Lord Bryce concludes with a plea for a league of peace. "The obstacles in the way of creating such a league are many and obvious," he says, "but whatever else may come out of the war, we in England hope that the result of it will be the creation of some machinery calculated to avert the recurrence of so awful a calamity as that from which mankind is now suffering."

Mexico Is Land of Contrast; Great Riches, Extreme Poverty

Head Coming. * * * * * Washington, D. C., April 4.—Mexico, the land of contrasts, of great riches and extreme poverty, a few of its people amassing millions, while myriads are starving, a place where the most modern machinery may be found in operation at the very side of the most primitive method of accomplishing the same end, where beautiful cities stand in contrast with mud huts and where shirking automobile of the latest design whirl past sleepy ox teams hauling carts with solid wooden slabs for wheels identical with the design which was used at the time of the Spanish conquest, is the subject of a bulletin issued by the National Geographic Society from its headquarters in Washington today.

Putting down a prominent street in almost any of the large Mexican cities, there may be seen fashionably dressed gentlemen, who look very much as though they were just as much at home on Piccadilly, the Champs Elysees of Fifth avenue, following or preceding them, however, will be a sandalled peon clad in linen trousers and a blouse, with his "scape" thrown over his shoulder and his head protected by a wide-brimmed sombrero, and a entire worldly possessions upon his back.

"In the next block one may meet an Indian woman, barefoot and with uncovered head, a child slung in the 'bouca' over her shoulder. About her there is a suggestion of garlic, onions and 'pulque,' while passing along the same street comfortably ensconced in his Victoria, dressed in a latest Parisian creation, rolls milady, also of the same nation.

"A recently appointed funeral car bearing the remains of one whose family can afford this expense, may arrive at the burial place simultaneously with three or four peons, packing on their shoulders the body of a comrade in a plainly painted coffin, the use of which is rented and will be returned after the body is given interment.

"Our English ideal for the future is of a world in which every people shall have within its own borders a free national government resting on, and conforming to, the general will of its citizens; a government able to devote itself to improving the condition of the people without encroaching on its neighbors, or being disturbed by the fear of an attack from enemies abroad. Legislators and administrators have already taken tasks sufficiently difficult in reconciling the claims of different classes, in adjusting the interests of capital and labor, in promoting health and diffusing education and enlightenment, without the addition of those tasks and dangers which arise from the terror of foreign war."

"I cannot believe that the German people, as I have hitherto known them, ever since I studied at a German university more than fifty years ago, could possibly approve of the action of their Government if their Government suffered them to know the facts regarding the origin and conduct of the war, or the facts known to the rest of the world."

"We have had no hatred of the German people. We did not grudge them their prosperity. Neither have we any wish to break up Germany, destroying her national unity, or to interfere in any way with her internal politics. Our quarrel is with the German government. We think it is a danger to every peaceful country and to every nation fighting against its doctrines, its ambitions, its methods of warfare, we and our Allies are virtually fighting the battle of all peace-loving neutral nations as well as our own."

"We must fight on till victory is won, for a Government which sacrosanct treaties and wages an inhuman warfare against innocent non-combatants cannot be suffered to prevail over a massive Germany."

"A triumph of the German navy of the seas as well as of the land would be a menace to every nation, even to those of the Western Hemisphere."

Lord Bryce concludes with a plea for a league of peace. "The obstacles in the way of creating such a league are many and obvious," he says, "but whatever else may come out of the war, we in England hope that the result of it will be the creation of some machinery calculated to avert the recurrence of so awful a calamity as that from which mankind is now suffering."

"Our English ideal for the future is of a world in which every people shall have within its own borders a free national government resting on, and conforming to, the general will of its citizens; a government able to devote itself to improving the condition of the people without encroaching on its neighbors, or being disturbed by the fear of an attack from enemies abroad. Legislators and administrators have already taken tasks sufficiently difficult in reconciling the claims of different classes, in adjusting the interests of capital and labor, in promoting health and diffusing education and enlightenment, without the addition of those tasks and dangers which arise from the terror of foreign war."

"I cannot believe that the German people, as I have hitherto known them, ever since I studied at a German university more than fifty years ago, could possibly approve of the action of their Government if their Government suffered them to know the facts regarding the origin and conduct of the war, or the facts known to the rest of the world."

"We have had no hatred of the German people. We did not grudge them their prosperity. Neither have we any wish to break up Germany, destroying her national unity, or to interfere in any way with her internal politics. Our quarrel is with the German government. We think it is a danger to every peaceful country and to every nation fighting against its doctrines, its ambitions, its methods of warfare, we and our Allies are virtually fighting the battle of all peace-loving neutral nations as well as our own."

"We must fight on till victory is won, for a Government which sacrosanct treaties and wages an inhuman warfare against innocent non-combatants cannot be suffered to prevail over a massive Germany."

"A triumph of the German navy of the seas as well as of the land would be a menace to every nation, even to those of the Western Hemisphere."

Lord Bryce concludes with a plea for a league of peace. "The obstacles in the way of creating such a league are many and obvious," he says, "but whatever else may come out of the war, we in England hope that the result of it will be the creation of some machinery calculated to avert the recurrence of so awful a calamity as that from which mankind is now suffering."

"Our English ideal for the future is of a world in which every people shall have within its own borders a free national government resting on, and conforming to, the general will of its citizens; a government able to devote itself to improving the condition of the people without encroaching on its neighbors, or being disturbed by the fear of an attack from enemies abroad. Legislators and administrators have already taken tasks sufficiently difficult in reconciling the claims of different classes, in adjusting the interests of capital and labor, in promoting health and diffusing education and enlightenment, without the addition of those tasks and dangers which arise from the terror of foreign war."

"I cannot believe that the German people, as I have hitherto known them, ever since I studied at a German university more than fifty years ago, could possibly approve of the action of their Government if their Government suffered them to know the facts regarding the origin and conduct of the war, or the facts known to the rest of the world."

"We have had no hatred of the German people. We did not grudge them their prosperity. Neither have we any wish to break up Germany, destroying her national unity, or to interfere in any way with her internal politics. Our quarrel is with the German government. We think it is a danger to every peaceful country and to every nation fighting against its doctrines, its ambitions, its methods of warfare, we and our Allies are virtually fighting the battle of all peace-loving neutral nations as well as our own."

"We must fight on till victory is won, for a Government which sacrosanct treaties and wages an inhuman warfare against innocent non-combatants cannot be suffered to prevail over a massive Germany."

"A triumph of the German navy of the seas as well as of the land would be a menace to every nation, even to those of the Western Hemisphere."

Lord Bryce concludes with a plea for a league of peace. "The obstacles in the way of creating such a league are many and obvious," he says, "but whatever else may come out of the war, we in England hope that the result of it will be the creation of some machinery calculated to avert the recurrence of so awful a calamity as that from which mankind is now suffering."

"Our English ideal for the future is of a world in which every people shall have within its own borders a free national government resting on, and conforming to, the general will of its citizens; a government able to devote itself to improving the condition of the people without encroaching on its neighbors, or being disturbed by the fear of an attack from enemies abroad. Legislators and administrators have already taken tasks sufficiently difficult in reconciling the claims of different classes, in adjusting the interests of capital and labor, in promoting health and diffusing education and enlightenment, without the addition of those tasks and dangers which arise from the terror of foreign war."

"I cannot believe that the German people, as I have hitherto known them, ever since I studied at a German university more than fifty years ago, could possibly approve of the action of their Government if their Government suffered them to know the facts regarding the origin and conduct of the war, or the facts known to the rest of the world."

"We have had no hatred of the German people. We did not grudge them their prosperity. Neither have we any wish to break up Germany, destroying her national unity, or to interfere in any way with her internal politics. Our quarrel is with the German government. We think it is a danger to every peaceful country and to every nation fighting against its doctrines, its ambitions, its methods of warfare, we and our Allies are virtually fighting the battle of all peace-loving neutral nations as well as our own."

"We must fight on till victory is won, for a Government which sacrosanct treaties and wages an inhuman warfare against innocent non-combatants cannot be suffered to prevail over a massive Germany."

"A triumph of the German navy of the seas as well as of the land would be a menace to every nation, even to those of the Western Hemisphere."

Lord Bryce concludes with a plea for a league of peace. "The obstacles in the way of creating such a league are many and obvious," he says, "but whatever else may come out of the war, we in England hope that the result of it will be the creation of some machinery calculated to avert the recurrence of so awful a calamity as that from which mankind is now suffering."

"Our English ideal for the future is of a world in which every people shall have within its own borders a free national government resting on, and conforming to, the general will of its citizens; a government able to devote itself to improving the condition of the people without encroaching on its neighbors, or being disturbed by the fear of an attack from enemies abroad. Legislators and administrators have already taken tasks sufficiently difficult in reconciling the claims of different classes, in adjusting the interests of capital and labor, in promoting health and diffusing education and enlightenment, without the addition of those tasks and dangers which arise from the terror of foreign war."

"I cannot believe that the German people, as I have hitherto known them, ever since I studied at a German university more than fifty years ago, could possibly approve of the action of their Government if their Government suffered them to know the facts regarding the origin and conduct of the war, or the facts known to the rest of the world."

"We have had no hatred of the German people. We did not grudge them their prosperity. Neither have we any wish to break up Germany, destroying her national unity, or to interfere in any way with her internal politics. Our quarrel is with the German government. We think it is a danger to every peaceful country and to every nation fighting against its doctrines, its ambitions, its methods of warfare, we and our Allies are virtually fighting the battle of all peace-loving neutral nations as well as our own."

"We must fight on till victory is won, for a Government which sacrosanct treaties and wages an inhuman warfare against innocent non-combatants cannot be suffered to prevail over a massive Germany."

"A triumph of the German navy of the seas as well as of the land would be a menace to every nation, even to those of the Western Hemisphere."

Lord Bryce concludes with a plea for a league of peace. "The obstacles in the way of creating such a league are many and obvious," he says, "but whatever else may come out of the war, we in England hope that the result of it will be the creation of some machinery calculated to avert the recurrence of so awful a calamity as that from which mankind is now suffering."

"Our English ideal for the future is of a world in which every people shall have within its own borders a free national government resting on, and conforming to, the general will of its citizens; a government able to devote itself to improving the condition of the people without encroaching on its neighbors, or being disturbed by the fear of an attack from enemies abroad. Legislators and administrators have already taken tasks sufficiently difficult in reconciling the claims of different classes, in adjusting the interests of capital and labor, in promoting health and diffusing education and enlightenment, without the addition of those tasks and dangers which arise from the terror of foreign war."

ASKS COMMISSIONER TO REVOKE LICENSE

Issue Is Raised With Reference to Wisconsin's Employers' Exchange. (SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE)

Madison, Wis., April 4.—Under the provisions of the insurance law of Wisconsin, the state insurance department must license an exchange that has complied with the provisions of the law is the case of the Insurance Commissioner M. J. Cleary. In the case of the Wisconsin employers' exchange, Assemblyman Frank J. Weber, representing the Wisconsin employers' exchange, Assembleyman Weber attempted to have the license of the company revoked on the ground that it was not a company within the meaning of the law and second that the company was insolvent. The opinion of Commissioner Cleary does not completely determine whether it is a company within the meaning of the law. This point will be immediately taken up by the state industrial commission.

"Back in the country districts the whirl of a sewing machine may be heard coming from a cane or mud hut while the hub of the house may be seen scratching the ground with a plow of essentials, the same as sign as those used in Mesopotamia in the time of Nebuchadnezzar, or threshing grain by driving animals over it.

"In the sugar growing country, wooden, stone, or copper rolls operated by animal power extract the saccharine matter from the cane and excess molasses is absorbed by a wad of mud, although a few miles distant roller mills, vacuum pans, and centrifugals, produces larger quantities of sugar of a superior quality.

"The climate too has its extremes, and in the highlands the nights are cold while the sunny side of the street at noon is too warm for comfort. The lowlands are days of intense torment, preceding others when a strong northern chills to the bone. Months of drought during which little if any rains fall, are succeeded by intervals when rain may be expected for a part of every day. Of such contracts as Mexico once called the 'Treasure House of the World.'

from a short stay in Beloit. M. G. Springfield was in Janesville on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dooley were passengers to Chicago Monday to visit friends.

Knut Guelson was a Janesville visitor on Monday.

Mesdames H. M. Schmid and B. U. Roderick and Miss Belle Fleek were in Janesville Monday.

Miss Maud Merrill was the guest of friends in Orfordville Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Collins have moved from the Bowles residence into Mrs. H. Barnes' residence on Clinton street.

PATRIOTISM TO BE THE SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Sheboygan, April 4.—At his own request George W. Spratt, of Sheboygan, former commander of the G. A. R. and a prominent member of the board of education, to deliver an address before the high school students this afternoon on "Patriotism." It is denied the address is to be a reply to the General Charles King address on "Preparedness."

POSTMASTER FOUND SHORT IN HIS ACCOUNTS IS A SUICIDE

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Dubuque, Iowa, April 4.—An inquest was held today over the body of Orlis Johnson, postmaster at Waukon Junction, near Iowa. A postoffice inspector checked Johnson $18 short in his accounts yesterday and the postmaster went home and shot himself.

WISCONSIN ATHLETES ARE TO COMPETE AT AN IOWA MEET

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Des Moines, Iowa, April 4.—It was announced today that the University of Wisconsin will enter the Drake relay meet here April 22. Entries have been received from Wisconsin for the four mile and one mile events.

WEATHER FORECAST FALLACIES, TARGET

Climatological Bureau Attacks Schemes for Prediction of Weather Months in Advance.

Weather "dopters," prediction artists, new schemes for forecasting the weather for weeks or months in advance and hocus-pocus artificial producers of rain, the prevention of hail and all other proposals in the category of control or modification of atmospheric phenomena are taboo now by Uncle Sam.

In a circular letter today to co-operative observers, storm warning displaymen and forecast distributors the Wisconsin section of the United States Department of Agriculture of the climatological service the bureau issues warning against forecasting fallacies.

It appears that some newspapers have recently reprinted representations concerning a new system of long range weather forecasting and the bureau believes that the public should be definitely informed of its views and attitude on schemes which scientists of international reputation have condemned and branded as fallacious.

The latest misrepresentation of this character now being presented to the people of the country is an alleged new system of long range weather forecasting said to be based on the rifts and the spottedness of the sun and its shafts of solar radiation. The bulletin informs that the bureau knows of the so-called discovery in full and it has received careful consideration, for an experimental study and information by its scientific staff and has been found to have no direct influence upon the weather at any time or place and therefore cannot be made the basis of weather forecasting.

Edgerton News

NO LICENSE QUESTION IS UP FOR VOTE IN EDGERTON

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE)

Edgerton, April 4.—The local election opened at nine o'clock this morning with all the appearances of a wet and dry contest. L. E. Gettle and Hal. R. Martin, the attorneys for the local no-license committee, were challenging in behalf of the committee and William Stroh and Frank Hartshorne, two local saloonkeepers, were acting for the wets. The local committee has been active the past few days distributing literature by mail and distributors. While not predicting success, the dry committee feels that a creditable showing will be made and the first registration of Edgerton electors unhampered by a mass of fieating voters. Both sides seem confident of victory. Both sides anticipate a vote of between 40 and 50.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Elm shoeemaker died at their home at Chippewa Falls and the body was brought to the city last evening for burial.

Ed. Ogden has taken a position with the Gary Tobacco company at Madison.

Mrs. W. M. Bussey was a Stoughton caller yesterday.

Mrs. O. W. Wins, who has been visiting the city the past week, returned to her home in Orlfordville yesterday.

Mrs. I. G. Lutz is a Beloit visitor today.

Mrs. Otto Drager of Fort Atkinson is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Schmeling for a few days.

Miss Anna De Forest, niece of Mrs. T. B. Earle, who has been critically ill in the Earle home, is to be out again.